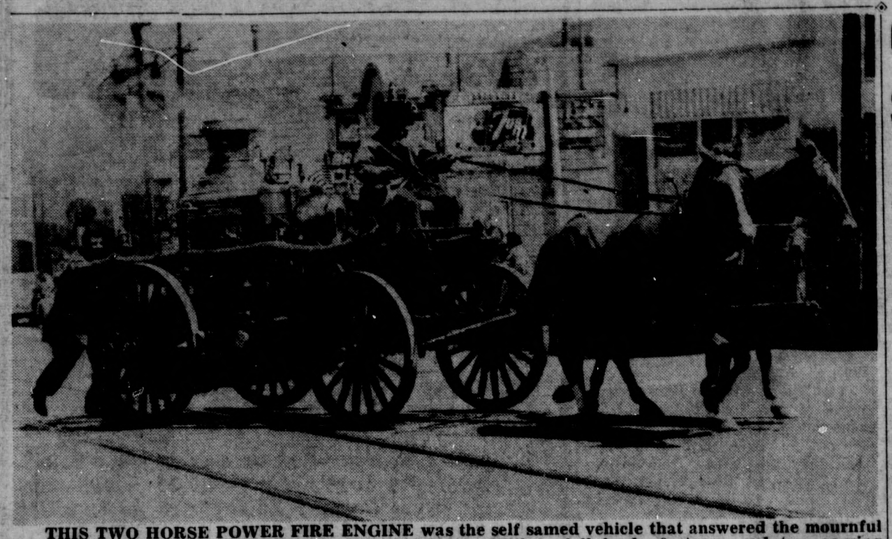
LID BLOWN OFF RENT CONTROLS



THIS TWO HORSE POWER FIRE ENGINE was the self samed vehicle that answered the mournful cry, "Fireman, save my child," back in the early 1900's. Diane Daly Reports

Even The Weather Proved Helpful For Daly City's Annual Spring Event

by Diane Daly

"Made to order" could be the description of last Sundays weather, when the Sun gave forth in all its radiance, perfecting the setting for Daly City's Spring Festival and Parade.

Getting underway on schedule the parade was well received all along its course, entering the Jefferson Recreation Field to an assemblage of persons and bleachers filled to capacity.

All the town's notables were on hand, with Mayor Green escorting Queen Maryann Laramie and the royal party, to their places of domain, on the lavishly decorated stage. Tommy Harris did a fine job of announcing the entries as they passed the reviewing stand, in his own inimitable fashion.

Good Marshal

Mike Desiano presented quite a figure as Parade Marshal astride his Palomino stallion, "Amigo," with its $35,000 silver saddle very much in evidence. Wearing chartreuse and purple with white accents, the drill team of Jobs Daughters Bethel 37, merited their standing as State Champs. The San Mateo Sheriffs Posse resplendent in their blue and gold shirts and white Fedoras proudly showed their Palominos off to an admiring audience, their skill in handling well known. Causing a good deal of comment and many guilt complexes was the Fire Dept. float depicting a cluttered basement.

Dr. J. W. Wilson, intrepid Drillmaster of the Polly Parrotts, all girl green and gold clad juniors representing the National Assn. of Colored Girls put his team through paces to win the Junior award. All the kids enjoying the red and white Model A Ford (backfiring) with the fun gang, Order of Cooties and Cootiettes VFW joining in the general hijinks. Rancho El Mamino Riders in a beautiful display of horseflesh and D. C. Sportswomen's Huck Finn Pool winning a hearty applause.

Eagle's Float

The Eagles rather outdid themselves, with a small train for the men's group, and the timely theme of the "Old Woman in the Shoe," which I believe interpreted the local school situation, the float entry of the Auxilliary. The Eagles Drill Team, scored a hit with their Acqua, red and gold outfits. An outstanding rider who achieved recognition was Jackie Eggers, riding an all white horse. So trim and in fine formation, the trafic boys of O.L.P.H. School. Jean London putting on an acrobatic stint as head majorette of

FIRE DESTROYS WESTLAKE HOME

Fire, which is believed to have started in a pile of dirty paint rags, partially destroyed a near completed home in Westlake early Tuesday morning.

Damage to the unoccupied home was estimated to be be between $700 and $1,000, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy said.

A night watchman first spotted the flames pouring out of the house at the corner of Castelmont and Fairway Drive. He called the fire department and three engines arrived a few minutes later. Firemen had the blaze under control within a half hour.

The damage was confined to the inside of the house, and at no time were other nearby houses in danger, Chief Kennedy noted.

MAYOR GIVES COURT SOLUTION

Calls For Return Of Circuit Judge

Opposition to, and a possible solution of the new San Mateo County tri-court plan was sounded this week by Mayor Paul Green.

Under the new plan, to go into effect early in 1953, there would be only one court serving Daly City and the north county . . . this at Millbrae. Consequently, every offense from wife beating to parking meter violations would require the parties involved to travel to Millbrae.

The mayor asserted this system hardly appeared workable. To counteract the new court plan, the mayor will request that a county clerk be assigned to Daly City. The clerk could handle the minor offenses, which are the majority of all cases in this area.

Also, Mayor Green said he would call for a return of the circuit judge system whereby the Millbrae judge could spend at least one day a week in Daly City.

When the new court system is established, Daly City's police court as well as the justice-of-the-peace court in South City will be abolished in favor of one court at Millbrae.

Whist Party

OLPH Schedules Big Game May 18

Local whist players are looking forward with anticipation to the night of Friday, May 18.

That is the night of the gigantic whist party being staged under the direction of chairman Bill Whalen in Our Lady of Perpetual Help School Auditorium for the benefit of the Sister's Convent repair fund.

It will be their night, with many valuable prizes being awarded the winners in addition to the many door prizes, refreshments, entertainment, and other games planned by the committee.

With the enthusiasm shown by local players toward the event, a large turnout is anticipated and a night whist players will long remember and cherish is being planned.

The combined organizations of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church who are sponsoring the whist, for a cause they consider extremely worthy, are staging a ticket selling drive among their friends in order to make this an evening in which every citizen of the community may participate.

Committee members for the party include: chairman, Bill Wha-

Council Makes It Official Second Time Around

Council Overrules Two Objectors To Lift Rent Control In This Area

The lid was lifted on rent controls by the city council Tuesday evening, but not until some residents did their best to hold the lid down with a verbage barrage.

A resolution to the effect that the city council has abolished rent controls will now be sent to the proper authorities in Washington, D. C. It is expected the final approval of the rent ceilling measure will be back here within 30 days.

Landlords are reminded that while the council has abolished the controls, it all isn't oficial until approval from Washington, D. C.; and rent can not be increased before the final O.K. comes from the capital.

Loud Protests

Loudest in his protest against the council's move was Charles Garry, a local resident and San Francisco attorney, who was ably supported by a Daly City woman.

The opposition, however, was stronger. Close to 15 landlords or their representatives were present at the meeting.

In calling for a continuation of rent controls, although with a raise where justified, Garry said: "To abolish these controls now is untimely and unwise. San Francisco can't do it, and it is difficult to see where Daly City's problem is any different. The law provides relief for landlords who are not now getting a fair rent."

In Favor

Speaking for some 150 landlord clients, Ricco Logomarsino stood in favor of lifting controls. He said: "There are plenty of rental units available. All other prices have gone up, all other control abolished but rents. The rentals are there, and I can see no reason for controls."

Lagomarsino was backed in his plea by Richard Penasy, Henry Sunderman, Paul Selmi and several other landlords all of whom noted that present rents were so low that they were unable to keep their property, or in some cases even rent it out.

Speaking for the council, Mayor Paul Green asserted that the law of supply and demand will keep down rents, especially as there are plenty of rental units in this area. He said he did not fear that the majority of landlords would become unreasonable in their demands when rent controls are lifted.

This opinion was born out by the other councilmen.

Tuesday night's action was the second rent hearing. The first was declared valid because of a legal technicality. At the first hearing, as at the second, the council favored lifting the controls.

Meanwhile, just to make things interesting, President Truman this week said he would soon ask congres to slap on general rent controls again all over the country.

Hanrahan States Qualifications

Pointing to the need for a well-rounded curricula for the education of elementary school students, Claude Hanrahan, well known Navy veteran, said today, "The modern world presents an ever-increasing challenge to educators, in order that the men and women of the future will be able to understand the civilization of today and tomorrow.

TWO THIRDS VOTE NEEDED FOR BONDS

Little Opposition Seen To May 18 Elect'n.

Well informed officials said today that little or no opposition is expected at the May 18 high school bond election.

Nevertheless, these same officials urged every resident to get out and vote.

"A heavy vote is needed, as the bond issue must be approved by at least two-thirds of the voters to pass," Thomas Callan, school board trustee, noted today.

The need to build a new high school is apparent. Present facilities at Jefferson High School are for 900 students. Today the school has 950 students. By 1953 the enrollment is expected to reach 1,400.

"Anyone can easily see that we either build a new high school, or force the students into double sessions," Peter Markovich, school trustee, said.

The bond issue, which will cost taxpayers no more than 2 cents a day, will build a new school on Skyline Boulevard as well as enlarge present facilities at Jefferson High School.

Jeff's Al Johnson Wins Speech Title

Albert Johnson, Jefferson High senior, won the Lions Club district student speakers contest Sunday at Hoberg's resort in Marin County. He was declared winner over three others.

Johnson next will compete in the area championship to be held before the San Francisco Lions Club May 22. If he wins this, he will enter the Stockton finals for the district comprising of California and Nevada, where he will vie for the opportunity of competing in the grand national event.

Local Lions Club members who saw Johnson come through for a win at Hoberg's Sunday included Mr. and Mrs.: Gil O'Shaughnesy, Walter Rector, Stanford Hannah and Ira Neville. Also present was Lion Hall Willis, Miss May Henderson, Ed Weisenberger and Al's speech teacher. Miss Seaton.

Song Of The Street

Jack Hammers Open Local Job

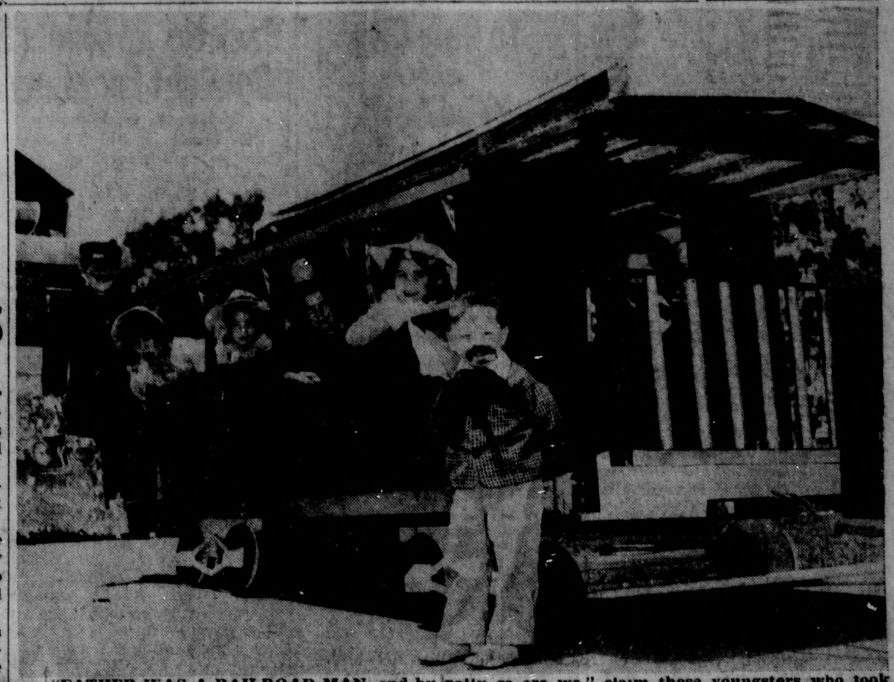
To cacophony of jack hammers and flying cement, workmen opened the job of putting in traffic islands at vital Daly City intersections this week.

The job, plans for which were made two years ago, is expected to take about 60 days.

When completed there will be traffic signals and channelization of traffic at the intersection of Mission, San Jose and Bepler Streets.

Total cost of the job will be $29,200 of which the city will pay two-thirds and the state the balance.

Also, in the very near future the same traffic islands and lights will be installed at the intersection of Mission, Market and San Pedro Road. Cost of this job is estimated at $23,000, with the same arrangement for payment.



"FATHER WAS A RAILROAD MAN, and by golly so are we," claim these youngsters who took part in the Daly City Eagles train float in the annual Spring Festival here last Sunday. The small fry helped to bring in the first prize as the most unique float in the parade. (Photo by Pat Corner)

High School Board

Callan Declares... No Double Sessions

Pledging to continue the fight against any form of double sessions, Thomas J. Callan today asked voters to return him for another term as Jefferson High School District trustee.

Callan, the only incumbent seeking one of two positions on the school board, is a pioneer local resident whose major interest has always been education. He has managed to pass this interest on to two daughters both of whom are teachers at Redwood City and San Francisco respectively.

During his term on the board, Callan has done his best to prevent the invasion of "swing shift" education. The culmination of his efforts is embodied in the May 18 high school bond issue to erect a new high school for local students.

Same Condition

"The present overcrowded condition in the elementary schools will soon be the same condition in the high school," Callan said today. "The only way we can keep double session out of Jefferson is to build a new high school.

'That is why I ask you not only to vote for me May 18, but more important, to cast a "yes" vote for the high school bonds."

A retired business man, Callan now devotes his full time to the problems of the local high school. Friends point out that he is the only candidate, or member of the present board, who is in a position to give all his time to the board.

SF MAN CLAIMS NO JUSTICE HERE

Demands Jury Trial For Minor Offense

A San Francisco man who claims he isn't getting justice in Daly City has demanded a jury trial for an otherwise minor traffic offense.

He is Fred Gehring, 444 Cayuga Street, who was issued a traffic tag for speeding March 18. Officer Henry Sunderman asserted Gehring was doing 38 miles in a 25 mile per hour zone on Hillside Boulevard.

Not so, says Gehring. He will be tried in Daly City police court Tuesday, May 15 at 10 a.m.

In addition to being charged ith speeding, Gehring is also accused of refusing to obey an officer. Officer Sundarman said when he asked Gehring to sign a traffic tag, the San Francisco man refused. Officer Sunderman said it would then be necessary, according to law, for him to put up bail in police court.

According to police, Gehring was to have followed Sunderman to the station, but refused to do so.

On the other hand, Gehring claims this is not the case.

Gehring has indicated that he believes he was discriminated against by Officer Sunderman. He said he would make his charge moke clear at the jury trial.

The usual fine for Gehring's asserted misdemeanor would be no more than $10 or $15. However, he is fighting the case on a matter of principle, he told officers.

It was learned also that Gehring is perhaps prepared to appeal the case if he should not get a favorable decision in the local court.

Leo Englert of the San Mateo County district attorney's office will handle the case for the city, while Gehring has employed Samuel D. Hamburg as his attorney.

Little 38th

Ocean Shore R. R. May Open Strip

Representatives of the Ocean Shore Railroad indicated today they would not stand in the way of Daly City crossing the controversial "railroad" strip in Westlake.

This surprising turn in the battle of the "little 38th parallel," was made at a hearing before Judge Murray Draper in Redwood City Wednesday morning.

Ely Legert, attorney for the railroad, said his clients do not wish to "stand in the way of progress"; and probably will not fight the city's action to extend Southgate and South Mayfair over the strip.

Frank Blum, city attorney, said the railroad officials and the city authorities will meet this Friday to discuss the matter further. The railroad has requested certain "engineering agreements" before giving the city the rightaway over the strip. These agreements are expected to be drawn up in such a way as that the city will recognize the railroad still exists, and that the crossings will in no way prevent the road from operating a line should this be necessary.

This latter provision is expected to be made to "cover" the railroad in its present half-million dollar suit with the state, in which the Ocean Shore claims it still operates a legitimate railroad. However, no sign of engine or car has been seen on the supposed railroad for the past 25 years.

Meanwhile, Judge Draper called for briefs in the case of whether Doelger or the Railroad owns the strip of land which runs north and west through Westlake. Doelger's representatives submitted their case Wednesday morning, but the Railroad officials asked for another delay. Judge Draper gave the Railroad until June 1 to turn in their brief on the case.

a solid educational background must form the basis for the advanced student of tomorrow."

Hanrahan, who holds a Master's Degree from Stanford University, has completed more than six year's of college education, and holds teaching credentials at the high school level.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Hanrahan instructed Navy pilots in Navigation training, including mathematics, and was assigned to the staff of a major Pacific Coast University for that purpose.

Hanrahan, who has two children, one of them attending Garden Village School, resides with his wife Marjorie, at 932 Bradley Drive, Colma, stated that he believed the job of laying out an effective program is a man's one, and pledged that he would devote practically full time to the job of School Trustee if elected.

Employed in San Francisco as a Plant Manager, Hanrahan said his hours of employment permit him to devote such time to the duties for which he has studied.

The only World War II veteran in the race, Hanrahan has been active in civic and veteran's affairs for several years.

Callan Declares . . . No Double Sessions

In The Black

During his term of office the financial condition of the high school is the best it has ever been, reports show. While the school was close to the "red" three years ago, it can now show a definite balanced budget.

"But, again, more important than anything else is the conditions of our schols. We can't allow part time education. If we are to retain our democracy, it is all important that every child be given a full education," Callan asserted.

"There must be no double sessions at Jefferson. The only way I, and the residents of this area can hold back this menace is to support a building program.

"I urge all of you, as responsible residents and voters, to vote "yes" on the school bonds. I also hope that you will see fit at the same time to show your confidence in me and my fight against double sessions by giving me your vote."

through its adult division offering vocational courses to citizens residing in every section of the county.

It was Corlett's opinion that although the junior college's educational services were broad in scope these services must fit within a certain efficient financial framework which will not be a burden to county taxpeyers. He said that it has always been his concern during his tenure on the junior college board of trustees to see that the school's facilities and teaching staff needs are adequately provided for at a reasonable cost.

In seeking re-election to his present post on the college board, Corlett stated that one of the important functions of the five member college trustee group is the administration of the school's million dollar a year budget. Corlett, who is the executive head of the local Borden Dairy Delivery Co., felt that his experience in managing one of the largest peninsula industries, gives him the necessary business knowledge to ably assist with the administration of the junior college funds.

Pack No. 36 Dinner Proves Season Highlight For Many Den Mothers

by Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

The dinner at the El Jardin Cafe, on California Street, Wednesday night, May 2, honoring the Pack Den Mothers, was a fitting and happy climax to the months of work by the Den Mothers.

The dinner was delicious, with a choice of roast beef or turkey and all the trimmings, including wine. Cub Master Smith had composed a little rhyme about each Den Mother and assistant which he read off as the Den Mother named, stood for recognition. The rhymes weren't masterpieces of poetry, but they were fun, as Smith touched upon some characteristic of each Den Mother. Just some nonsense which added a gay note to an evening already off to a happy start.

Then the fathers had to put their hands behind their backs and blow baloons up without touching them or stopping till the baloon burst. Any of you who have blown up baloons lately will know how hard the darn things are to blow up.

Next Stunt

The next stunt for the fathers was to put in straw in their mouths with the other end against a piece of paper, suck out the air till a vacuum was formed to hold the paper to the straw and then race from the starting point the length of the long tables and back without losing the paper. If you don't think that one was fun for everyone, try it sometime. Anyone who lost his paper had to pick it up again the same way from whatever place it landed and carry on.

After the dinner, and speeches, (which fortunately were short, and mostly humerous) there was dancing. Most people went home but those of us who stayed had a wonderful time. We were such a hapy crowd and so natural.

Good Speech

There is food for thought in a sentence from one of the speeches, made either by Dr. Finley or Cub Master Smith. The sentence was, "Did you ever stop to think what would happen if all the volunteer workers all over the country suddenly quit working?" Stop and think about that sentence for a minute. Think about what it would mean to so many people. I had never thought about it myself, and it certainly gave me pause.

It was simply amazing the number of boys and leaders down at the Cow Palace for the opening ceremonies of the Scout-O-Rama last Friday night. The arena was packed with boys and their leaders in the opening parade. One writer estimated the number at 8000. Each little den and troop, a tiny part, make up this vast whole. Den 16 is proud to have been a part of it.

Batter Up

Now to baseball. The rainy weather of the last week necessarily put a crimp in it, but the boys are still in there pitching at every oportunity. Last Saturday at Aptos playground, Pack No. 1 took Pack 36 in a closely played game, by a score of 12 to 10. Next Saturday, Pack 36 will play Pack 104 at Aptos, weather permitting. Let's see a good turn out of parents to encourage these kids to give their all.

The situation certainly was reversed for the Pack at the meeting Tuesday night. Have you ever wondered how it felt to be in the other fellow's shoes? Last Pack meeting the parents sat where the Cubs usually sit, and had the flags,, inspection, etc., that the Cubs usually have. The Cubs were the spectators. Oh, to have been a Cub at that meeting. The parents had to chew Blackjack gum, put the gum on a white piece of paper, take a took pick, and carve out the heads of wolves, bears, and lions.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Ruth Fisher Asks For Vote May 18

The Editor
The Record

Next Friday is ELECTION DAY! I appeal to all of you to vote.

As candidate for trustee for the Jefferson Elementary School District I state simply this:

I want to promote the best kind of education in our district. That is had by giving knowledge and time and good will which I have always practiced in our community. I stand on that as a rock-strong reputation. I am proud to repeat this, I stand on my sincerity, good will and most of all my sound educational knowledge of our district. I AM INFLUENCED BY NOTHING ELSE! And the proof of this is in the standards I have set for myself. I am going to hold fast to these principles because I know that these are the principles and desires of the parents and the people who stand for the finest beliefs of Democracy. Such trends are more important today than ever before.

I have promoted my campaign with these principles in mind, and have done so without coercion of or from anyone. My endeavors are and will be only to promote the utmost in education.

Thank you all who have encouraged me,

Sincerely yours,
Ruth Macdonald Fisher

Girl Scouts Apply For Camperships

Girl Scouts and Brownies of North San Mateo County now are invited to apply for camperships for the coming summer. Camperships, which are scholarships to summer camps, are available for the regular camp at Camp Wasibo in the Santa Cruz Mountains, as well as for Troop Camp and Day Camp.

Applications may be obtained from all Girl Scout leaders, and must be returned to the troop leader before May 12. These applications will then be reviewed by the Campership Committee on May 15. The members of this committee, composed of one representative from each council of the North San Mateo County Federation, plus a chairman are:

Mrs. M. R. Oliva of South San Francisco, General Chairman.

Mrs. Bert Mills, San Bruno-Lomita ark Chairman.

Mrs. J. A. McCullough, Millbrae Chairman.

Mrs. Charles Carlyle, South San Francisco Chairman.

Mrs. Marie Miller, Daly City-Colma-Bayshore-Sharp Park Chairman.

The leaders will be notified before May 19, which is registration day for Camp Wasibo

One of the primary qualifications for a campership is the desire on the part of the girl to go to camp. Also a girl must be a registered member of the Girl Scouts or Brownies, must be a good member of her troop, she should have shown leadership qualities, must have the principles of scouting at heart, and must show evidence of having saved towards her camp fee. In order to qualify for a champership to Camp Wasibo she must also have had at least one experience in Day Camp or Backyard Camping.

Camp Wasibo, the established Scout camp, opens in early July. It is located near Felton in the Santa Cruz Mountains. There will be three camp periods: two for 10 days each, and one for two weeks. Day Camps will also be held in July, and will entail day-long outings to nearby camps. Troop Camps are overnight camping trips, which may be made by an entire troop. Camperships for these Troop Camps may be applied for by written request from the Troop Scribe to the local Troop Camp Chairman stating specific need.

These camps are sponsored by the Federation of Girl Scouts Councils of North San Mateo County, which is a Red Feather Agency of the San Mateo County Community Chest. Most camperships are for only part of the girl's expenses; full camperships being awarded only under very special conditions.

Leaders and scouts are reminded that not all applications may be accepted, due to necessarily limited funds.

Colma PTA Sets Up Refreshment Booth

The Colma PTA Executive Board with Mrs. John Wiesner, president, in charge, set up the refreshment booth on the Jefferson High School field Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Chessman, Mrs. Wiesner, and Mrs. Louis Bertetta decorated the stands.

Mrs. Jack Clayton. Mrs. Alan F. Mori, Mrs. Louis Stanghellini, Mrs. J. D. Hopper, Mrs. Herbert Kern, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Wiesner, sold and worked in the stand. Don and Jay Wiesner, Donald Monson, Edward Dennis, Jr., sold and worked in the stands, and sold among the people.

The general meeting of the Colma PTA was held Tuesday, May 8, at the Colma Community Center.

The Sewing and Sunshine Group will have their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis V. Bruce at 852 Beechwood Drive in Broadmoor Village. All are welcome; if you plan to attend please phone PLaza 5-5782. There will be sewing of the PTA, also the knitting from the Red Cross, whichever you would prefer to do.

At PTA Meeting Tormey To Speak

Annual "School of Information" for Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers on Thursday, May 17, will have the enthusiastic interest of local delegates who attended the State convention this past week in San Diego. Sessions will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the San Mateo Congregational church on Tilton avenue and San Mateo drive.

Feature of the morning business meeting will be a talk by James Tormey, San Mateo county superintendent of elementary schools, on the provocative topic, "A Home Is A Liability." Departments of organization and extension will be presented by their directors, Mrs. J. B. Mills of San Bruno and Mrs. Faun Tuska of Burlingame.

District convention delegates were Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos and Mrs. H. P. Eder of Burlingame, president and first vice-president, who will lead the department groups in conducting the afternoon conferences. Instruction will be given the local chairmen for membership, program budget, ways and means, publicity and school notices, hospitality and rom representatives, honorary life membership, and secondary schools.

Luncheon reservations are due by Monday, May 14, to the new reservations chairmen: the Mesdames C. E. Dilkes of Palo Alto, Avery Epler of Redwood City, L. G. Evans of San Mateo, and Lyal Ingersoll of Daly City.

Chairman for 1951-1952, ratified at the April meeting, are preparing the conference material.

Make Paraments Ladies Guild

At this Sunday's 11 a.m. Worship Service hour, the new red paraments made by women of the Ladies Guild will be dedicated. And the newly organized male quartette will sing in honor of Mother's Day. The robed choir, under the leadership of Mrs. R. Konzelman, will also sing.

The Men's Brotherhood will meet Friday, May 18th, at the church.

Sunday School and Bible hour is held at 9:45 a.m. every Sunday, and the Divine Worship hour follows at 11. The Sunday Evening Bible hour is held at 7:30 p.m. every Sunday. The Pastor, Rev. Robert G. Konzelman, B.D., extends a warm welcome to residents of Daly City to worship at the Lutheran Church of our Savior, located at Garfield and Junipero Serra Blvd.

Ladies Auxiliary To Sell Poppies

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Lake Merced Post, VFW, Colma, will be holding their traditional Buddy Poppy out to you to wear in your lapel May 25.

The Buddy Poppy is a symbol of devotion. It is a remembrance of those who have failed to return while performing their duty to their country in its time of need.

The anual sale of Buddy Poppies serves two great purposes. One, the remembrance to those who have given their lives on the fields of Flanders in 1918, the others to provide funds required to serve the daily personal needs of our disabled and needy veterans and their dependents.

There are millions of unfortunate veterans as well as widows and orphans and dependent parents who are unable to qualify for government aid. Support of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies Poppies makes it possible for the Veterans of Foreign Wars to maintain its great nation-wide program of free rehabilitation service to these veterans, widows, orphans and dependent parents.

The ladies of Lake Merced Post deem it a great honor to be able to bring these poppies for the public to wear. These poppies are constructed by the disabled veterans in the Veterans Hospital and Service Hospitals in California.

In order to make this construction easier, the poppy is prestamped, the remainder of the poppy is made at the hospital and each poppy is purchased from the veteran who constructs them.

Part of the program of the Ladies Auxiliary is a monthly visit to the Veterans Administration Hospital at Palo Alto. Here the ladies entertain the disabled veterans and help bring a little cheer to those who need it so badly. Funds for this program are secured from the sale of Buddy Poppies.

Another Service performed as a result of this is the support of the rehabilitation fund at the Vets Hospital. This past year, the Auxiliary has helped purchase a work bench for the hospital to aid the vets learn wood-working trades.

Other funds were used to construct a dark room for those patients who are interested in photography. All these items are used as aids by the staff of the hospital in order to cure the illness and to rehabilitate the vets for life outside the hospital.

Help this great program by buying a poppy from the Ladies Auxiliary. Remember the dead who are buried near battlefields where they died, or in cemeteries here at home. Do them honor by helping the living.

Pershing PTA Hot Dog Booth Sell-Out

The General Pershing PTA hot dog sale at the May Day Festival, held at Jefferson High School, was a complete sell out. Hot dogs with delicious chili, made by Mrs. A. W. Lauffenburger, were served to the gala crowd that turned out for the occasion.

General Pershing was highly honored in having won second prize for the most originally decorated booth which was done in Spanish style to emphasize "chili dog's" and Mr. George Ryan took pictures of the booth.

Thanks go to Mr. Howard B. Miguel, teacher at Jefferson High School, for his generosity in helping to furnish us with the sombrero's and serape's, that helped in winning the award.

The artistic advertisement was accomplished by Mrs. A. W. Lauffenburger and Mrs. Robert Pool.

Those who worked in the booth were Mrs. George Freeland, Mrs. A. W. Lauffenburger, Mrs. George Parson and Mrs. Frank J. Prisco. Utensils and equipment were gathered from Mrs. Lauffengurger, Mrs. Frances Nenstiel and Mrs. Frank Prisco.

Bruce Freeland, student at General Pershing, aided by selling hot dogs to those in the stands.

A Parliamentary Procedure Class was conducted by Mrs. George Beanston, Tuesday, May 8th, and held at the Colma Community Center. Those that attended were: Mrs. Joseph Arroyos, Mrs. W. H. Derham, Mrs. C. H. Sciaroni, Mrs. H. Smith and Mrs. Frank J. Prisco.

General Pershing children enjoyed a hot dog lunch, which was held Wednesday, May 9th. The menu consisted of hot dogs, soda and cake. Mother's who served the children were: Mrs. Joseph Arroyos, Mrs. H. Derham, Mrs. George Parson, Mrs. C. H. Sciaroni, Mrs. D. C. Gensel, Mrs. A. Bautista and Mrs. F. J. Prisco.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Citizens:

Since the time I was elected to the office of School Trustee, it has been my wish to keep those who are interested informed of the business and developments in the school district. The job hasn't been especially an easy one, as even though all business of the district should be brought before the board as a whole, and I have been absent from only one board meeting in two years—that involving a death in the family. The business has not been brought before the board in its entirety to be sure, but to avoid an impression of pettiness, the matters passed unmentioned until just recently when an incident occurred that involved a substantial sum of money and a flagrant violation of the State Education Code, to say nothing of tossing ethical procedure to the winds.

Precisely the situation is this: About two months ago, when the construction work was beginning on the Westlake School, nearby residents came to the board meeting to protest the unpleasant condition caused by the drifting sands and windblown sands from the school grounds. With these objections in mind, the residents asked for a low board fence to be constructed in order to arrest the sand. The architect for the district was on hand, and generally the discussion was toward relief for the residents, but the expense of a temporary fence (in the neighborhood of $5,000.00) was given second consideration, and the more permanent planting and landscaping plan was investigated and figures submitted to the State Dept. of Planning and Finance for approval of a loan to permanently relieve the condition. Time elapsed while the request was with the state, and it was thought that some personal interest on the part of the citizens and a conference with state officials might expedite matters. With this in mind, I initiated an effort to bring local board, interested citizens, and state officials together. My first call was to the president of the Westlake Association, with my plan and invitation to this group. It was much to my surprise when a gentleman informed me that he had sent a telegram a few days previously to the Jefferson School District requesting a meeting with the board, only to be advised by the superintendent that it was not necessary, all would be taken care of. And so, without permission of the board, he orders several thousand dollars worth of temporary fencing to be erected. In view of faculty-cutting and curtailment of teachers increases, this seems a bit incongruous to me.

After recovering from this flagrant violation of the State Code, and contempt for the representatives of the people of the district, I called one of the board members and asked his position. I explained the violations and expressed indignation over the mis-handling of public monies. A few more days elapsed and Superintendent Snell sent me the following undated letter:

"Dear Board Member:

"The following telegram was received yesterday, and after conferring with Mr. Callan it was determined that this emergency should be taken care of immediately. We therefore authorized a 5' bulkhead fence to be built completely around the south, east, and north sides of the Westlake school site. I send this information to you so you will know exactly what has been done in the even the matter is called to your attention."

(copy of the Westlake telegram)

Jefferson School District
Attn: Jame Snell, Supt.
Sand blowing from school yard on to homes surrounding Westlake School a disgrace. Action must be taken. Suggest special meeting of board to take such action this week. Suggest Wednesday night. Westlake home owners demand action.

A conference with a state attorney leaves me with the belief that the aforementioned activities are in direct violation of the State Code and that individuals responsible to the people for the handling of public funds and management of business can be made responsible personally for the expenditure when it has not been "board action." The board has never acted on this expenditure, and none of the persons involved have troubled themselves to inform me of the questionable expenditure for a questionable purpose. I personally feel that Mr. Callan was put in the position of "holding the bag," and I wonder if incumbent candidate trustee Van der Werff might not show his interest in the voters problems and money long enough to protest such a misuse of office. I can only feel that he is in agreement treasonable acts such as these.

I hope I have informed some of the people of some of the things that can happen to their public institutions.

Sincerely,
(Signed)
HELEN M. CHEATHAM

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor and Citizens:

In order that the public may be adequately and truthfully informed of the problem facing the local Elementary School District concerning the dust blowing on the new Westlake school grounds, the following signed state is submitted:

Several months ago the problem was called to the attention of the board at a meeting at which the school architect was present, and at which he was instructed to take steps to solve the problem. We took the matter up with the state authorities, and plans for a complete solution were submitted by him.

In the meantime, the dust has continued to blow and the surrounding areas, private homes, lawns, and yards have been damaged. The question came to a head following a particularly bad wind storm within the past two weeks. Phone calls to board members and a telegram demanding action was received. The district is responsible for the damage. The matter was an emergency one as the district could and probably would have been sued by property owners in the area.

Immediate action was needed. An effort to telephone each of the board members was made and two of us contacted.

Unfortunately the third member was out of town and could not be contacted.

In the interest of protecting the district from damage suits and as an emergency matter the building of a fence immediately was authorized.

I submit to the public that what was done as an emergency measure, was proper and will result in saving the district from damage suits. When the house is burning down there is no time to enter futile arguments about the political set up of the fire department.

The home owners in the Westlake area are indebted to the action that was taken.

(Signed)
ANDREW VAN DER WERFF

Simon Seeks S.S.F. Board Position

Declaring that he would "do everything possible" to keep politics out of the school system, Robert L. Simon, candidate for trustee of the South San Francisco Unified School District at the election May 25, today formally opened his campaign in a series of talks to local women's organizations.

Simon is opposing M. R. Oliva, the incumbent, for the only seat at stake on the school board.

"The people of South San Francisco, especially the parents of school-age children, are sick and tired of having their educational system run by a small group of politicians," Simon said. He added that Oliva was a "tool" of that group.

The candidate, 42, has been a resident of South City for over six years. He lives with his wife, Anne, and two children, Barbara, 17, a high school student, and Robert Junior, 7, a grammar school pupil, at 650 Myrtle Ave. nue.

Simon said he has the backing of a "majority of the local businessmen, civic organizations, and of organized labor." He has been a union member over twenty years, he said.

KATHLEEN NORRIS
Cruel Meddling

"YOU OLDER PEOPLE can take some of the blame for the fact that one marriage out of every four goes on the rocks," writes Madelon Clay, from St. Louis. "I'm happy now with a second husband," her letter goes on, "but there'll always be a little ache in my heart that Garth and I threw away our young love and young marriage. What destroyed us both was our families and our friends.

"Both families were jealous and possessive. My mother telephoned every morning and expected to be told every detail of my life. Garth's mother felt that he had made a silly marriage, and never was anything but cold and formal with me. She telephoned, too, asking him to come up and see her, counting the minutes he stayed, and frequently urging him to telephone me that his mother was not very well, and he was staying with her for dinner.

"Then there were our friends. Garth and I were both still in college, my father paying me $100 a month from a small trust fund, Garth's mother allowing him the same sum. Garth worked some nights, helping a professor, and I worked in a tea shop Saturday afternoons. We were deep in love and determined that our great venture should be a success.

A Joke

"But to our school friends it wasn't a great adventure, it was a joke. They made great fun of us, the boys pitying Garth for his loss of freedom, the girls either flirting with him or trying to persuade me that he was no good. They came in every afternoon, four or five of them, drank our liquor and wasted our time.

"The school gossip began to seem pretty out-dated to us, we wanted to be alone, for reading, walks and study. We were never left undisturbed, and we could no longer afford the old amusements. But they couldn't see that at all.

". . . boys pitying Garth . . ."

They called us 'tight.' And sometimes it got so that Garth would be talked into something and I would feel it was a waste of money, or I would be dying to go to something and Garth could see nothing but the financial side.

"Everything conspired to make things hard. The summer was terribly hot, our house small and odorous; a baby was coming and I was miserable all the time. My mother wanted us to come to my old home to live and Garth wouldn't, and his mother was angry because we were having a baby at all. She said she had known just what a slovenly sort of life I would drag him into, and was not surprised.

"Then came the night when four friends came in at five, drank our liquor, went out for more and more ice, and stayed around until nearly eight. In desperation I asked them to stay for an impromptu meal, which turned out to be so skimpy that Garth, furious and ashamed, took us all to dinner. The bill was $28 and the other two boys said they'd match him for it. They did match, and Garth lost, and everyone put in 50 cents to pay our sitter.

So Silly Now

"It all seems so silly now, but we quarreled all that hot night, and at three in the morning the thought of my lovely airy room at home, and Mother's generous table, was just too much for me, and I took little Garth and went home.

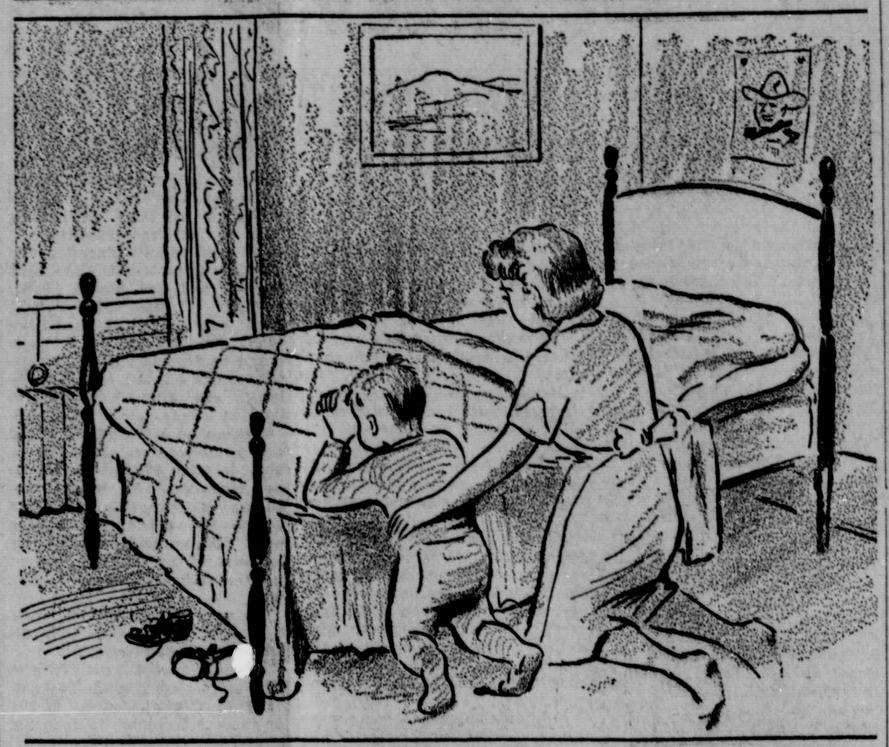
"My boy is 6 now. He knows that the good man who is baby Joy's father isn't his father. He knows his Daddy lives with another woman and calls her his wife. It's horribly unfair to him. And wasn't the whole thing unfair to Garth and me? Shouldn't we have had some help, been given a chance? Am I prejudiced, or is this so?"

No, you're not prejudiced, and indeed it is so, Madelon. We outsiders are far too much inclined to take young marriages only for what they mean to us. Unmarried friends drift in upon the newlyweds, intent only on idle amusement and very often mischievous interference, and mothers and fathers jealously try to hold tight to the old ties.

Often mothers and fathers feel that their responsibility for a loved daughter's happiness, her clothes and amusements and activities generally, is increased rather than lessened by her marriage. And their loving claims and interference confuse and trouble the young wife.

As for the boy and girl chums of yesterday, who want to make the whole thing a joke, they do much more harm than they ever dream. To be constantly obliged to apologize for old Stan, who always acts that way, puts a strain on the young husband.

"...And God Bless Mother."



Two Kefauver Ideas Signed By Warren

MAY 10. (CNS) — Governor Warren this week signed two bills which put into effect the recommendations of the California Crime Commission and the Kefauver Committee for taking the profit out of crime.

The bills are:

SB 896, Hulse. Adds sections to the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act and the Corporation Tax Act prohibiting deductions against gross income derived from illegal lottery, gaming and horse racing activities, or from other activities connected or associated with, or tending to promote or further such illegal activities. Immediately effective as a tax levy.

SB 921, Hulse. Adds a section to the revenue and taxation code making provisions similar to those in SB 895 applicable to personal income taxation. Immediately effective as a tax levy.

In signing the two measures, Governor Waren said:

"I believe these bills constitute a major step forward in curbing organized crime in California. These new laws will require the owner of every gambling business in California not only to report his gross income but to pay income taxes on it without any deduction for expenses in the operation of his gambling business or any other business associated with it or tending to promote it. This will include any legitimate business used as a blind or front for the gambling business."

Annual Mt. Tamalpais Mountain Play Slated

The 34th presentation of the Mountain Play Association, Percy Mackaye's "A Thousand Years Ago," will be held Sunday, May 20 at 2 p.m. in the Mountain Theatre on Mt. Tamalpais in Marin County.

The play features a cast of 100, beautiful costumes, pageantry and fine acting. It was first presented in 1941.

Tickets may be purchased on the day of the play at the theatre, or in advance from Halliday's, 37 Powell St., or the Sherman, Clay & Co. box office, Sutter and Kearny St.

Warren Signs Bill Exempting Schools

MAY 10. (CNS)—Governor Earl Warren this week signed a bill into law which exempts the property of schools of less than collegiate grade from taxation.

Included are schools "used exclusively for religious, hospital or charitable nature when owned and operated on a non-profit basis by funds, foundations, or corporation organized and operated on a non-profit basis."

The measure was sponsored before the legislature by parochial schools throughout the state.

The Governor said the bill, AB 3383, by Assemblyman Laughlin E. Waters, is in line with a principle expressed in the Constitution, which exempts schools of collegiate grade from taxation.

Until the assembly bill was signed, California was the only state in the union which did not exempt the parochial schools from taxation, the Governor said.

He also called attention to the vote of the people in 1944, which amended the constitution to make such exemptions possible by the state legislature.

Betty Duffy Home From Appendicitus Operation

Betty Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duffy of 141 Los Banos Street, was rushed to the Children's Hospital for an appendicitus operation Friday, April 29.

Miss Duffy, a Jefferson High School graduate, is at home now and fully recovered from the operation.

AFFAIRS OF STATE
by Henry C. MacArthur

First discussion of practical nurse problems at the current session of the legislature may take place next week when Assemblyman Charles W. Lyon of Los Angeles brings up his A. B. 1221 for hearing before the Assembly Public Health Committee.

If all the for-and-againsters turn out and speak their pieces, it could be a humdinger of a meeting. There are some 80,000 practical nurses in California, and there are three bills in the legislature which would license them and place them under regulation.

As the situation stands now, anybody can be a practical nurse and start working at it whether or not he or she knows anything more about nursing than what mother, or grandmother, outlined in the old days.

Sad Experience

John Public has had some sad experiences from these untutored practicals, but when it comes to setting up standards of what is and what isn't a nurse, the issue has always bogged down in argument between conflicting groups.

In the legislative session of 1949 there were two practical nurse licensure bills, one sponsored by the registered nurses of California on the basis that the public is entitled to some protection and the other sponsored by the doctors who agreed that public protection would be good, but they should have a hand in it. Neither bill ever got out of committee.

As a result of that battle, the Senate authorized an interim committee to study the nursing problems of California and come up with some answers and a bill which would meet the general needs.

Seeks Advice

The Senate committee sought the advice of an advisory group which included nurses, doctors, hospital administrators, and educators, and conducted public hearings in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Fresno at which everybody and anybody told their respective stories.

The committee concluded its work this week by submitting a report which recommends that the public educational system of California lend a hand in training nurses just as it does in the preliminary training of doctors, lawyers and other proffessions.

The committee bill, S.B. 1625, provides for a short course nurse to be called a licensed vocational nurse who will get part of her training in public schools or colleges, and the rest of it in hospitals working with the schools. That is the bill all parties agreed upon.

Lyon Bill

The Lyon bill has no such sponsorship. It is another old fashioned practical nurse license measure which the author says was handed to him by operators of advertising practical nurse schools in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland. They are expected to appear in support of the bill at the committee hearing next week.

With the shortage of nurses in California getting worse by the day as trained people are being called into the armed service, the Legislature is faced with the problem of doing something about it this year. The issue will probably be solved when both bills come up for hearing before the Senate Committee on Business and Professions later in the month.

COUNTY GETS TAX FUND ALLOTMENT

MAY 10. (CNS) — Distribution of $56,011,264 from the Highway Users Tax Fund for the quarter ended March 31 was announced this week by State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel.

The distribution in San Mateo County, Kuchel said, totaled $199,389.24.

The total amount distributed, according to the Controller, represents an increase of $13,728,279 over the quarter ended December 31, 1950.

SAFEST TRUCKS ON THE ROAD

NEW DODGE "Job-Rated" Trucks

The trucks that do the most for you

Why a "Job-Rated" truck is your safest investment

A "Job-Rated" truck is engineered at the factory to fit a specific job . . . save you money . . . last longer. Every unit from engine to rear axle is "Job-Rated"—engineered to haul a specific load over the roads you travel and at the speeds you require.

Every unit that SUPPORTS the load—frame, axles, springs, wheels, tires and others—is engineered right to provide the strength and capacity needed.

Every unit that MOVES the load—engine, clutch, transmission, propeller shaft, rear axle and others—is engineered right to meet a particular operating condition.

Safer stops with "Job-Rated" brakes

Step on the brakes of your Dodge "Job-Rated" truck and you're sure of smooth stopping action far in excess of normal requirements. You get long-lasting Cyclebond "no-rivet" brake lining—with lining area increased as G.V.W. rating goes up!

Now, on models 1½-ton and up, except air brake models, you get another Dodge "first"—new Tapered, Molded Cyclebond brake lining. It's longer-lasting, extra quiet—free from "squeal." Independent hand brake also adds to safety.

Safer steering and easier handling

Now, you can maneuver your Dodge "Job-Rated" truck with less effort! Steering is more accurate. New easy-acting worm-and-roller steering gears on many models.

To make driving still safer, Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks have new, shorter turning diameters. You also get the easy-handling advantages of cross-steering, short wheelbase, wide front tread. All these features add up to the easiest handling truck on the market!

Safer visibility with "Pilot-House" cabs

When you drive a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck you look through the biggest windshield of any popular truck! You have a clear close-up of the road, made possible by new, lower hood line. For even greater visibility you can get De Luxe and Custom cabs with rear quarter windows. All-steel "Pilot-House" cabs provide extra safety, too. Top, floor and sides are welded together—not bolted!

No wonder owners agree that Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks are the safest on the road!

FLUID DRIVE now available

Only Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks offer this great "exclusive"—available on all ½-, ¾-, and 1-ton models and Route-Vans. Helps assure less wheel-spinning on slippery surfaces . . . less tendency to spin in mud, sand, snow or wherever the going is tough.

What's more, gyrol Fluid Drive makes driving easier, helps protect loads, lowers upkeep costs, and lengthens truck life.

Come in today... see and drive the "safest" truck on the road . . . a DODGE "Job-Rated" TRUCK

ON THE OTHER HAND...

By Bob Quinlan

The Liberty Broadcasting System's chatty sportscaster, Gordon McClendon, recently committed the cardinal sin in baseball broadcasting: He missed the winning run.

Hard to believe isn't it? Explain it, we can't. We can only describe it to you.

It was the top half of the 11th inning in a 3-3 game between the Phillies and the cards at Philadelphia. Only the inning before the Cards had filled the bases with one out, but the Phils nipped the rally with a short-to-home-to-first double play.

Not to be denied the Redbirds again loaded the bags in the 11th with one out. Again a sharp ground ball was hit to shortstop Granny Hamner who again fired to the plate for the force out, but the relay to first for the double killing was to late.

On the play, however, the Cards' Stan Musial took off from second base and did not stop until he had crossed the plate with the winning run. This is where the Ol' Scotchman McClendon missed the boat. He was still describing the play at first.

The next St. Louis batter was out to end the inning. The Phillies then went down in order in their half of the frame, and McClendon related to his listeners that they were entering the 12th inning of a 3-3 ball game.

"But wait," he exclaimed, "the players are leaving the diamond, the fans are running on to the field, what happened?"

The Ol' Scotchman was utterly confused, and, as he describes a battered pitcher forced from the box, McClendon headed for the shwers. He had to call on an assistant to explain tohisequally assistant to explain to his equally confused listeners what happened.

McClendon obviously had not followed the golden rule in basebal broadcasting: Always follow the ball.

The Ol' Scotchman is a master conversationalist, but when it comes to sportscasting he leaves much to be desired. One time he was broacasting an exceptionally dull fight when he suddenly decided to announce one round in Japanese. That woke the listeners up.

But getting back to baseball McCledon cannot talk his way out of a poor performance at the microphone. In fact, many times he talks his way into one.

Take the time he was broadcasting at Boston's Fenway Park. He Gave Ted Williams a home run in the right field stands, only to take it away and put the ball in the fielder's glove. The ball was going over when a strong wind current brought it back towards the field, he said. The next inning in describing a home run he said the wind caught the ball and carried it over the right field fence.

When it come to missing the winning run, however, there is no way of talking your way out of it. McClendon did not even attempt this. The following day he greeted his listeners with, "LBS brings you another major league baseball broadcast, if you want to call it that."

brings to mind the days when Ernie Smith broadcasted the Seals' games. Ernie, likewise, was colorful with his errors.

One time he gave the Seals a triple play, but it wasn't entirely his fault. The umpires, at first, agreed with him. The bases were loaded against the Seals with no outs, when a ground ball was hit to third sacker Ted Jennings who tagged third and threw home. The catcher tagged the plate and threw to first, but it was too late. The first baseman, however, fired the ball back to home to catch the runer trying to score from second.

Smith called this a triple play, and began to commend the alertnes of the Seal infield. Actually there was only one out and one run was in. After Jennings tagged third for the first out there was no longer a force play at the plate. But the catcher overlooked this and tagged the plate before throwing to first base. The runner from second base that the nipped at the plate on the return throw was already out when he was forced at third.

If it wasn't for plays like the aforementioned and also the aforementioned broadcasters, baseball would not be in the spotlight of conversations as it is today. Barber shops would be like morgues.

Twentieth Century Fox has brought to the screen one of the greatest sport stories of all times in Follow the Sun, the life of Ben Hogan.

It is the story of the rise of a Fort Worth boy to the title of "Mr. Golf." It is more than a local boy makes good success story, however.

It portrays the courage of Hogan and the devotion of his wife, Valerie, during his comeback after an auto accident that almost took his life.

Follow the Sun does not have any last stroke hole-in-one victories typical of Hollywood. Rather it shows the machine-like pace Hogan set and the unmerciful setbacks he handed even his best friends on the links.

Unlike the recent Hollywood trends towards allowing sport heroes to portray themselves on the screen, 20th Century Fox cast Glenn Ford as Ben Hogan. Ford effectively brings out the serious nature of Hogan.

Anne Baxter plays the dramatic role of Valarie Hogan, while Dennis O'Keefe is cast as Hogan's best friend off the fairways and his rival on the fairways.

Golfers Sammy Snead, Jimmy Demaret and Dr. Cary Middlecoff and Grantland Rice, dean of sportswriters, portray themselves in the sport drama.

Follow the Sun opens today at the Fox Theater in San Francisco. We were fortunate in seeing it at a sneak preview two weeks ago.

Whether you are a sports fan or not, Follow the Sun is a "must" on your movie list.

17th District PTA
Local PTAs Study School Facilities

An adventure in adult learning begins on Wednesday morning, May 16, for Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers at the San Mateo Junior college campus on Delaware near Peninsular avenue.

Dr. Clyde Curry, director of administrative services in the office of the San Mateo county superintendent of schools, will start the lecture series for a study of county school facilities at 9:30 a.m. in room 215.

Mrs. Richard A. Andresen of San Mateo, enthusiastic PTA chairman, and Philip D. Morse, director of the Junior college adult education program, have cooperated on arrangements for the three weekly lectures on Wednesday, and on each Friday following there will be tours to view on-the-spot developments in school house planning.

These tours are to include points of interest in each area, as well as stops at modern and older schools. First tour on May 18 will be over the part of the county from San Mateo north to Daly City and South San Francisco. Busses will leave from the Delaware Junior college campus promptly at 9:30 a.m., and will return at 2:30 p.m. Tourists should provide nosebag lunches for the trip.

Succeeding lectures will come on May 23 and May 10, and will supply background information for the tours. Subjects to be discussed are school planning and building for elementary and secondary plants, educational facilities, and teaching problems.

Second tour on May 25 will highlight the Coastside communities and their smaller school districts. One June 1 the south county from Belmont to East Palo Alto and Woodside will be explored. A registration fee of 50c per person will cover the entire program.

On the tour committee are the Mesdames Flora E. Steele of Pescadero, M. D. Lazzari of South San Francisco, R. P. Maynard of Millbrae, Albert Breuer of Burlingame, Joseph Brick of San Mateo, G. J. Sirex of San Carlos, Henry Ipsen of Redwood City, and R. A. Andresen of San Mateo, general chairman. James Tormey, county superintendent of schools, and his directors are cooperating with Mr. Morse of the adult education center at the Junior college.

Farley To Speak At Opera House

James A. Farley, nationally prominent political and business figure, will speak at the San Francisco War Memorial Opera House on Monday evening, May 21.

Mr. Farley's appearance will mark the opening of the 1951 season of the Paulist Forum, it was announced by Emmet Daly, general chairman of the Forum.

"The Paulist Forum considers an address by Mr. Farley at this time of great importance," Mr. Daly said. "James Farley, like most Americans, holds dear our traditional democratic way of life and views with increasing alarm the rising tides of political and economic unrest and the shifting of moral values," he said.

"Accustomed to leadership through many years in government and private industry, Mr. Farley quickly recognizes the danger signals. He thinks it is vitally important now that we review and reaffirm the codes and principles which, in the past, have guided our country to the attainment of a strong, secure national position," Mr. Daly said.

Weststates Beats Park Presidio, 8-6

Norry Hurls, Bats Realty To Victory

Behind the brilliant relief hurling of August Norry, Weststates Realty came from behind to down Park Presidio, 8-6, Sunday at Funston Field.

Norry entered the game in the fourth inning to quell a Park Presidio uprising, and then set them down with two hits in the next five frames. He aided his cause by banging out a double and triple to drive in three runs.

Ed Sustak niped several potential Park Presidio rallies with sparkling plays at third base. Sustak picked up four bases on balls and scored every time he was on base.

Girl Scouts Take Part In Local May Day Celebration

The Annual Daly City May Festival is always a big event for everyone in the community, and this year the Girl Scouts were especially pleased with the opportunities afforded them to participate in it.

They were on hand to give programs to those attending the festivities in the Jefferson Union High School Stadium.

Representing their organization as a Red Feather agency, these seven Brownie Scouts had the honor of riding on the San Mateo County Community Chest float: Lyndia White, Alforda Rungr, Shirley Ann Rentsch, Virginia Fellman, Leslie Newcome, Gail Campbell and Sandra Goona.

In addition to showing their part in both giving and receiving community service, the following Brownies demonstrated some of the training in skills acquired through the scouting program by participating in the Maypole dance: Jenie Lavosa, Bonie Ladd, Phyllis Clayton, Sandra Smith, Judy McCann, Gail Kubewitz, Ann Mori, April Moseley, Arleen Hansen, Maryellen Unger, Sherrill Klingler, Dorothy Belestrini, Brenda Kaiser, Judy Montelione, Peggy Morgan, Joan O'Keefe, Norman North, and Susan Sciaroni. They climaxed their dance with the Brownie salute.

They were very capably trained by a former Girl Scout, Miss Beverly Heagney, assisted by Mrs. Louise Ladd and Mrs. Danny Golladay.

Book Report To Be Given By Study Club Chairman

An interesting book report on the "Visit of Theresa Neumann," by Elizabeth Marable Brennen, will be given by Mrs. George Rode, Court of St. Mary's Study Club chairman, at the May 17 meeting.

Election of officers for the coming year also will take place the same evening, with an invitation from Grand Regent Mrs. Richard J. Ennis to all members of the Court to attend.

S.F. Art Museum Now On T.V.

The San Francisco Museum of Art has taken up television to project its educational services beyond its walls and into new fields.

Contemporary art in all its aspects will be treated in telecasts which will be shown every other Sunday from 12:30 to 1 p.m. on KRON-TV, Channel 4. The program, "Art In Your Life," is designed to bring artists and public together. Outstanding local artiss and art authorities will participate in the programs, discussing and demonstrating art as a living, creative force, touching the everyday living of all.

On Sunday, May 20, "Art In Your Life" will visit the ferryboat "Vallejo," in Sausalito, where Jean Varda makes his home. This well-known San Francisco artist has received international recognition for his colorful collages, and will demonstrate their construction on the May 20 telecast.

The museum is among the first American art museums to present a regularly scheduled television program.

Add Third Plane To State Fish, Game "Air Force"

The Los Angeles metropolitan area will be the home of a new airplane to be operated by the California Division of Fish and Game in detecting conservation law violators, herding game animals, transplanting beavers by parachute drop, and game surveys.

Acquisition of the third radio-equipped plane in the State's wildlife "air force" was approved last year by the Legislature and the Fish and Game Commission. It was to have been a twin-engined C-45 type Beechcraft costing $80,000.

At the suggestion of veteran Warden-Pilot Al Reese, Commissioners at their last meeting gave the green light for purchase of a single-engined Cessna four-place craft. The savings of more than $72,000 in the original cost of the smaller plane will revert to the State's Fish and Game Preservation Fund.

California's fish and game wardens have seen about everything in the way of fishing gear—some legal, and some not.

But Warden James Wade of Monterey reports seeing the ultimate in angling tackle during a recent run of surf smelt at Moss Beach.

Among the hundreds of sport fishermen lured to Monterey Bay beaches each evening for the annual smelt spawning run was one successful angler catching the speedy little fish in a standard twin-sized bed springs.

A joint Federal-State budget of $954,000 for improvement of California's game resources during the 1951-52 fiscal year was approved by the Fish and Game Commission at its April meeting in Los Angeles.

Seventy-five per cent of the total will be supplied by the Federal Government from the proceeds of firearms and ammunition taxes, while the balance is put up by the State from its hunting license revenues. The Commission-approved budget now goes to Washington for review by Federal officials.

Robert P. Boone, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service representative, told the Commission that it may expect a record amount of Federal aid funds during the 1951-52 fiscal year. The Federal Service supervises expenditure of the returned tax monies under provisions of the Pittman-Robertson Act.

Daniel Tillotson, P-R coordinator for the California Division of Fish and Game, reported that $275,000 of the new budget would be spent for quail restoration programs. Development of the Grizzly Island waterfowl management area, Solano County, will account for $105,000 of the 1951-52 total.

M & S Motors Offer Used Car Bargains

A "red hot" sale in used automobiles is now going on at the M&S Motors Lot, 5440 Mission Street.

And the management assures its customers that this is really a sale. Many of the older models are going for almost half the price asked by other used car dealers. Even the late models are at prices hard to beat anywhere in the Bay Area.

As every sale must have a reason, the gents at M&S Motors at the sign of the two rabbits, are quick to admit that they have to get rid of these cars in preparation of opening a new lot. The second place of business will be near the present lot, but the exact location is still a secret.

Those worried about where to get the cash to take advantage of the sale need worry no longer. The management of M&S Motors are members of the Credit Association which makes getting a loan almost as simple as buying a used car.

Drop into M&S Motors today. You will be pleasantly surprised at the real bargains in used cars.

Jeff Mermen Place In Upper Division

Jefferson High's mermen placed in the upper division in all three classes in the P.A.L. swimming finals at Jefferson Tuesday.

The Jeff varsity placed fourth with 26 points behind Palo Alto, Sequoia, and San Mateo Highs; the "thirties" came third with 31 points training Palo Alto and Sequoia; and the "twenties" came second to Sequoia with 27 points.

Palo Alto breezed to the varsity title capturing seven firsts in the nine events.

Racking up Jeff's points in the varsity meet were Dan Davis, third in the 50-yard freestyle; Scot Hickman, fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke; Bill Allen, third in the 100-yard freestyle; Jim Jones, fifth in the same race; Davis, third in the 150-yard medley; and Don Espinosa, third in diving.

The medley relay and the four man relay teams placed sixth and fourth, respectively.

In the "thirties" meet Norm Cady acem second in the 50-yarder; Thor Oftedal, fourth in the 100-yarder; Weisman, fifth in the backstroke; Cady, first in the 100 yarder; and Don Faulkner and Rush Bundy, fourth and fifth in diving. The medley and the four man relays came third and sixth respectively.

For the "twenties" Bud Rainer placed fifth in the backstroke; Gregor, fourth and Weisman fifth in the breaststroke; and both relay team came third.

Livermore Rodeo Has Pickens Back

Slim Pickens, the hard-luck clown of the rodeo game, will be back in harness at the 34th annual Livermore Rodeo — "The World's Fastest"—when the show is held June 9th and 10th in the 25-chute Livermore arena.

Gored by a vicious brahma bull three years ago, Slim has fully recovered and will be back to lure the maddened brahmas from their fallen riders.

Slim is now a move star, having made a couple of western pictures during the rodeo off-season.

Reserved seat tickets to the rodeo will go on sale May 12th at the Rodeo's new headquarers, 224 South J Street, Livermore, states Secretary Jack Jensen Jr. Persons writing for tickets or information should address their letters to P. O. Box 180, Livermoore, Calif.

Entries to the traditional Saturday morning parade are continuing pour in at the Livermore Chamber of Commerce office, 171 Couth J Street, according to Secretary Jos. T. Smith of the Chamber. Entry blanks and parade information are available from the Chamber, Smith said.

Mothers Get Floral Tokens At Church

Every mother will be given a floral token prepared by Fred Hilger's class of high school young people at the 11:15 a.m. service of the Community Presbyterian Church Sunday, Mother's Day.

A surprising type of special music will be enjoyed Sunday and the Sacramento of Baptism for children will be administered by previous arrangement with the Minister.

Mrs. Herbert W. Hopkins is the church's guest organist during the absence of Mrs. Ben Persons who is away on a month's trip to her former home in Georgia.

The church choir needs one more bass, another tenor and another alto, and of course other sopranos would be welcomed.

All Veterans Get $1000 Property Tax Exemption

MAY 10. (CNS)—A bill which would extend the $1,000 property tax exemption to veterans of other campaigns of the United States Army in addition to those already authorized, was passed this week by the Assembly.

The measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister, Marin and Sonoma counties, provides that those serving in the first Nicaraguan campaign, the second Nicaraguan campaign, the Yangtze river campaign, and all other campaigns for which a medal has been issued, are eligible for the exemption.

Veterans now serving in Korea against the North Koreans and Chinese Communists, are also included under the provisions of the bill.

Increase State's Horse Racing Take "Killing Goose That Lays Golden Egg"

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO—(CNS) — The fable of "killing the goose that lays the golden egg" would apply to any move to increase the state's take from the California race tracks.

These conclusions are reached by the assembly interim committee on state and local taxation, headed by Assemblyman Jonathan J. Hollibaugh, Huntington Park, which recently concluded an exhaustive survey of race track finances.

..."Our laws," says the report, "make betting on a horse race inside a race track, through the pari-mutuel machine where the race is about to be run, legal—to bet or take bets on such a race otherwise than through the pari-mutuel machine is illegal.

"The interest of the state in having all gambling conducted within the track enclosure and through the pari-mutuel machine is obvious, likewise the interest of the track. Each gets a percentage of such bets, but nothing on illegal bets.

Angels Camp Again Jumping Frog Site

MAY 10. (CNS)—If you have a fine healthy frog in your possession you may pass the game warden with assurance, provided you are headed towards Angels Camp.

The State Division of Fish and Game has ruled that frogs, now out of season, may be toted to Angels Camp May 18, 19, and 20, provided the croakers are slated to compete in the annual frog jumping contest and not grace the dinner table.

Angels Camp will revive Mark Twain's "celebrated jumping frog of Calaveras county," and the state division has eased up on the game code so as to allow enough frogs to make the annual affair a success.

A special out of season possession permit has been issued the jumping jubilee committee and contestants may bring their entries to the Pioneer Calaveras mining town without interference by game wardens.

Grand Furniture Store Selling Complete Stock

Bargains that can't be beat in furniture and other home appliances are now on sale at the Grand Furniture Warehouse, 469 Grand Avenue, South San Francisco.

Liquidators have taken over the store, and $54,000 worth of furniture stock must be sold regardless of cost or loss. This means savings up to 50 per cent for you and your family.

The sale, which started Thursday, will continue daily from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Orders are to sell out in the shortest possible time. This means box springs and mattresses, stoves, chrome dinette sets and many other articles are going for almost cost.

Don't miss this sale. Here is an opportunity to purchase quality furniture at low prices.

VFW Auxiliaries Attend Meeting

The San Mateo-Santa Clara Council, V.F.W. auxiliaries, held its reglar meeting on May 5 in Palo Alto Veterans Building.

President Shirley Walker of Old Glory Aux. attended, accompanied by the following members:

Ethel Dorn, Marjorie Johnson, Ruth Brulez, Bonnie Ellenwood, Lorraine Schneider, Elizabeth Sorrensen, Eleanor Cochran, Marie Gehrig, Catherine Henriques and Clara Poket.

New officers were elected for the ensuing year. Lorraine Schneider was installed as senior vice president and Clara Poket as trustee. Ethel Dorn was one of the installing marshalls. While the others helped fill the chairs.

On Sunday the Post and the Auxiliary marched in the May Day Parade, where they received much applause all along the line of March.

CLEANING PLASTIC CAR WINDOWS

Some convertible model cars have plastic rear windows. To avoid damage when cleaning these windows the California State Automobile Association suggests the following procedure: 1) avoid the use of solvents or cleaning fluids, 2) do not use a scraper to remove snow or ice. In an emergency, warm water may be used. For general cleaning, use cold water and a mild soap. Rinse with cold water and dry with a clean soft cloth.

Allow Hunters In Closed Areas After Emergency

MAY 10. (CNS)—Hunters and fishermen would be permitted to hunt in areas closed because of fire hazards after the emergency had been declared at an end under a bill passed this week by the Assembly.

The measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Lester T. Davis, Plumas County, provides that the State Division of Fish and Game may schedule an open season in such areas to compensate for the time they are closed during regular hunting and fishing seasons.

"The partners in this gambling field are the state of California and the track, the state furnishing the permission to operate a gambling enterprise that otherwise would be illegal."

The returns to the state through this legal gambling enterprise are large, the committee points out. Since the state decided in 1933 to accumulate revenue through the gambling of its citizens, its coffers have been swollen by $123,879,574,.22. Highet return was in 1945-46, when more than $22 million represented the state's take, and last year, the sum amounted to $14 million.

INDIAN CINDERMEN PLACE FIFTH IN PAL TRACK, FIELD FINALS

Jefferson High's cindermen came within one-half a point of fourth place in the P.A.L. track finals in Spartan Stadium, San Jose, Monday.

Palo Alto edged out San Mateo 31¾-31½ to take the prep crown. Sequoia came third with 15½ and Jefferson with 15.

Vic Baher paced the Indians, copping the discus event with a toss of 129' 10⅜" and placing third in the shot put. Jeff's Bollinger won the 880 in 2:03.3, and Blower came second in the mile.

Native Sons Hold 5th Drum Festival

Wanted: Majorettes, drummers, buglers and drill teams from this area to compete in the 5th Annual Drum Festival and Majorette Competition, Saturday night, May 26, at Kezar Pavilion, San Francisco. The yearly event is sponsored by the Twin Peaks Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West.

More than 250 contestants, many of them from east of the Rockies, will compete for valuable trophies.

Six classes in the popular majorette division have been announced, ranging from 4-year-olds up through senior baton twirlers. High school majorettes are particularly urged to enter the contest.

There are 12 classes in the drum and bugle events, starting with children from 6 to 12 years old.

"The performers seen at this meet," said Cliff Roberts, general chairman of the event, "are among those who liven our parades and marching spectacles, and who improve the color and pageantry of California's celebrations."

Entry blanks for all classes may be obtained from Mr. Roberts, 2238 Thirty-Fifth Ave., San Francisco.

Bart Maughan, who resides at 236 Thiers Street, Daly City, is the popular Publicity and Program chairman of the Twin Peaks Parlor, Native Sons.

Plan County-Wide Teachers Institute

Plans for the county-wide Teachers Institute, to be held later this year, highlighted the meeting of the Executive Board of The San Mateo County Teachers Association held yesterday (May 7th, Mon.) at Burlingame High School.

The Board, headed by Victor Binsacca of Jefferson High, also voted to recommend to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors that they reconsider approval of Bill AB-380 pending in the State Legislature. This bill, which has the approval of the California Teachers Association and other professional bodies, would base salaries of county school superintendents on the average daily attendance in the county. It would also replace the 58 salary arrangements throughout the state with eight groups, simplifying the present unwieldy system.

Jeff Nine Resumes North County Wars With South City

Indians Only Half Game Out Of Prep League Lead

The Jefferson Indians and the South San Francisco Warriors resume their north county rivalry tomorrow (May 11) when they meet on the Jeff diamond.

Jeff enters the fray with a five won, one lost, and on tied record, and is on'y one-half a game off the league pace. South City can boast only a two won and five lost record, and enters the contest in the role of the spoiler.

But this is the role the Warriors like best. They would like nothing better than knocking the Indians out of the playoffs.

South City prepped for the "big game" with a 9-7 win over Lincoln Tuesday. At the same time Jefferson was handing cellar dwellers Half Moon Bay their seventh straight setback of the campaign, 8-1.

Glenn South will use his ace right hander Ed Cereghino on the mound against the Warriors. Cereghino has posted a 3-1 record this season. His only loss came during a relief stint, when his mates could not back him with any runs.

Charlie Donley went the route for Jeff in their win over HMB here Tuesday. He scattered five base hits while the Indians garnered nine.

Murray Advocates JC Tax Rate Cut

Reducing the San Mateo Junior College tax rate in the Jefferson High School district throug including all of San Mateo County in the college district is the plan advocated by Norbert J. Murray, candidate for one of the two junior college trustee posts being voted on May 18.

As the district is now set up the Jefferson high school district pays a .36 per hundred tax rate while the Sequoia district pays only .14 per hundred in outside tuition fees, according to Murray, in spite of the fact there is a greater relative proportion of students from Sequoia in attendance.

Enlarging the district would equalize the tax burden without working a hardship on the areas now excluded from the district, he believes.

Murray, who resides in San Mateo, is a former editor of the San Bruno Progress and is now employed as a representative of Bishnel Company, Peninsula advertising and public relations firm. He is also connected with a San Francisco advertising company in an advisory capacity.

He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin where he was a member of the boxing squad under Stub Allison, former California football coach and Fred Swan, onetime assistant to Pop Warner at Stanford. Following graduation he was sports editor of a Michigan newspaper later becoming district manager for the American Automobile Association in Washington, D.C., and Chicago.

Murray enlisted in the Navy in January, 1942, as a Seaman second class, was commissioned an Ensign a year and a half later at Moffett Field, and was released to inactive duty in 1946 as a Lieutenant senior grade. His overseas duty included 15 months as a communications officer on the staff of Admiral R. W. Christie, commander submarines seventh fleet.

A resident of San Mateo, married and father of two children, he is historian of the San Mateo Legion Post, vice commander of the San Mateo County Amvets, and was recently elected an officer of the San Mateo Eagles.

New cases of the measles are John and Claudian Guz.

Karen Guymon had to be different. She broke out with chicken pox.

Andrea Pansini, who has just recovered from the measles, is in the French Hospital with pneumonia.

Don't mention measles to little Tomy Thayer who celebrated his third birthday alone because everyone had the measles, and then when everyone got over them, guess what? Yep! Tommy got them.

HERE AND THERE

Pat Mattson became the new president of the Women's Association of the Community Presbyterian Church when the former president Mrs. Graff of Stewart Street moved away.

James L. Snell PTA won first place as the most atractively decorated booth in the May Day Festival. The chairman was Mrs. Ray Logan and we hear tell Mr. Logan planned and made the decorations.

The Village Churchmen all arrived home from their trip to San Quinten. The comment: it was a nice trip, but once is enough.

So long, see you next week.

Men And Women In Uniform

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C.—Woman Marine Private Mary Frances Falbo, daughter of Mrs. Carmen C. Falbo of 371 Citrus Ave., Daly City, has graduated from a Recruit Training Battalion here, and after a ten-day leave will take her place in the Marine Corps with an active unit.

The Women Marines' training is designed to produce well disciplined, efficient Women Marines, equal to their fighting brothers.

"Boot Camp" consists of a six-week training period including classroom instruction in basic Marine Corps history, interior guard procedure, personal hygiene, customs and courtesies, Naval law, and other closely related subjects normally found in Marine training.

Prior to enlisting in the Marine Corps, Private Falbo was employed as a physical education instructor at Pittsburg Senior high school in Pittsburg, Calif.

A Daly City Naval Reserve officer and a blue jacket are in the service news because of personal accomplishments.

Lt. Cmdr. Jerome C. Halseth, Civil Engineer Corps, USNR, of 654 Niantic ave., has been graduated from the Reserve Disaster Relief Course at the U. S. Naval School, Civil Engineer Corps Officers, Naval Construction Battalion Center, Port Hueneme.

The course is designed to acquaint officers and key civilians of the Naval establishment with the principles of disaster relief planning. Instruction is given to enable graduates to organize units for the protection of personel, control of damage and restoration of essential services in the event of a disaster.

Lt. Cmdr. Halseth, who holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Oregon State College, is employed as an engineer at the San Francisco Naval Shipyard.

Thomas Atienza, USN, of 161 Bellevue ave., has been advanced to the rate of engineman, second class, while serving aboard the submarine USS Blenny of the Pacific Fleet.

Pfc. Jack E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin S. Wilson of 317 Winchester Street, is home on leave after completing his Marine Corps boot training at San Diego.

Wilson, a February graduate of Jefferson High School, was the senior class president and co-captain of the football team there.

He returns to San Diego May 16 for training in field radio operation.

Pfc. Richard Adam Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Stahl of 275 Hillside Boulevard, is stationed with the Air Force at Farewell, Alaska.

Dick, 19, who left February 11, is up for corporal soon. He is engaged to Addonna Dean of 6610 Mission Street.

Lt. Raymond H. Tschirgi, USN, husband of Mrs. Mary Ann Tschirgi of 22 Paul st., Daly City, is serving aboard the Navy's attack cargo ship USS Virgo, attached to Service Squadron 3, which is supplying United Nations warships in the Far East.

Attack cargo ships were converted from merchant vessels at the beginning of World War II and were equipped to carry combat cargo at high speeds.

Booms were added which made possibel the carrying of landing craft for amphibious assaults. To round out their complete battle efectiveness, special fire mains and firefighting equipment were designed for the ships and radio and radar equipment was put aboard.

WRONG ATTITUDES IN DRIVING

Ignorance of safety rules, cockiness, dependence upon luck rather than upon real driving skill, are all wrong attitudes that are found in drivers who have proved themselves to be accident prone, points out the National Automobile Club. How are your attitudes? Are they wrong, or right?

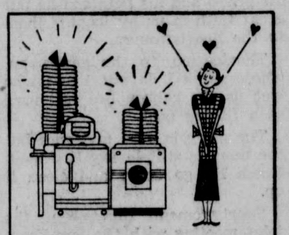
"It's great to have a home laundry... especially with P. G. and E. rates lower today than in 1940"

Blessings on my modern washer!
Does our laundry spic and span,
And for pennies gets the work done
Four times faster than I can!

We've decided on a laundry.
Dealer helped us lay our plan.
Had our washer, got a dryer,
Now we'll add things as we can.



Someday I will have an ironer!
Thrifty thought . . . for we have found
As our household use increases,
Rates already low . . . GO DOWN!

You folks here in Northern and Central California will be glad to know that a home laundry, complete with washer, dryer and ironer, not only saves hours of hard work but in the average home, costs less than 85¢ a month to operate. Your dealer will be glad to show you how easy it is to have these appliances in your home. See him today if possible.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

COLMA SCHOOL

The pupils in room 2 have been studying "Sea Fever" and "Roadways"—two poems by John Masefield. Each poem describes the sea. The scenes were made into a mural.

The eighth grade in room 3 is learning to find the volume of rectangular solids, triangular prisms, cylinders, cones, and pyramids. Some students are now ready for algebra.

The students of room 4 have just completed a unit on Rome. They have learned about its beginning, its height of glory, and its decline.

Room 5

The students in room 5 are studying the uses of the dictionary as a means of increasing their vocabulary.

In health the students of the seventh grade in room 6 are studying about the right foods to eat. They've learned one can't fill his stomach as one would a gas tank and be healthy. Many well-fed children are very poorly nourished because some necessary food is lacking in the diet. The students are drawing illustrations showing the four classifications of food.

Room 7

The students in room 7 are studying the rules on changing singular nouns to plural nouns. In arithmetic our topic is "Mathematics in the Home" This includes the cost of fuels, electricity, water, and foods.

Room 8 has its own museum, consisting of snakes, toads, lizards, sea shells, fossils, and rocks. Charles Evans brought a 450 power microscope to school. With this useful instrument the pupils observe the wonders of the microscopic world. Dick Stookey, chairman of the science table, will be on television Wednesday at 5 o'clock to be interviewed.

Growing Up

The Crocker PTA program theme for May, "Growing Up" will be developed by a student forum from the eighth grade, Room 1, Colma School. Teen-age questions and problems submitted anonymously by members of the class, will be answered by other volunteers from the same group. The chairman and moderator of this panel is Jim Rector, room representative from Room 1.

Other panel participants will be: Bob Bridges, Carolyn Saumner, Reigh Rockey, Marilyn Jones, Ed Van Staveren, Lenita Johnson, Donna Carlisle, and Bob Wallace. Time permitting, questions from the floor will be encouraged by the student panel.

Each parent and visitor present at this forum discussion, will be given a program with the panel

Honor Mother's Day At Grace Church

The services this Sunday at the Grace Presbyterian Church will be in keeping with the spirit of Mothers Day. The pastor, the Rev. William Harberts, will bring a message.

The members of Bethel No. 198 of the Order of Job's Daughters will attend in a body and will have a part in the service.

The public is most welcome to worship at the Grace Church this Mother's Day. Grace Church always extends a hearty invitation to all who have no church home in this area.

questions to be discussed listed for them, so that they may have an opportunity to note any questions they would like to ask regarding those under discussion.

CROCKER SCHOOL

Room 3

The fifth grade in Room 3 has written an original play on Safety. We call our play "Let's Play Safe." It reminds us of the things we need to do to ride our bicycles safely. Vicki Tomasi and Anthony Sudduth have been chosen to take the two parts in the play. Our play also features a movie which different members of the class will help in making.

Room 4

The sixth grade has begun a short unit on Australia and New Zealand. They have learned that these countries are often called the lands "down under." The class has been especially interested in the unusual animals found in these lands. These include the kangaroo, the koala bear, the dingo, and the duck—billed platypus. They have also learned that our familiar California eucalyptus tree is really a native of Australia.

Room 5

Forty parents and friends visited our room Tuesday evening, April twenty-fourth.

Phyllis Benner had her appendix removed at St. Mary's Hospital. We hope she will be able to come back to school soon.

Breakfast Follows St. Mary's Mass

May 6 saw 1000 Catholic Daughters of America attend Mass and receive Holy Communion at St. Mary's Cathedral, with Rev. Patrick Donohue celebrating the Mass. A breakfast was served in the Cathedral Hall afterwards.

Guest speakers were State Regent Mrs. Timmothy M. Malney, and Rev. Father Thomas J. Bowe, state chaplain, introduced by Mrs. Milton C. Weckerle, state secretary and chairman of the breakfast banquet. State and Archdiosean Chairmen were also introduced.

Members from Court St. Mary's, Daly City, in attendance were:

Mesdames: Valetta Ennis, Evelyn Weckerle, Mary McGraw, Anna Pannela, Ann Young, Christine Stevenson, Helen McDonough, Dorothy Stewart, Mary Marciano, Elizabeth Wettstein, Beth Powers, Marty Mackall, Jean Lachini, Rose McNabe, Nora Coleman, Nellies Sheeham, Brigit Hart, Anna Marty, Florence Dore, Evelyn Reynolds, Betty Ahernand, Christine Salisbury.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By DIANE DALY

Preceded by whispering campaigns and secret counsels, Mother's Day this coming Sunday will be the occasion for gifts and remembrances to find their way beside Mother's plate or on her dresser, where she will "discover" the gift to her everlasting delight and surprise! Her approval reflected in the excited eyes of her children.

It will indeed be a day for Mother to treasure, for in spite of the pressure of modern life, the struggle for security and unrest of the times, these are truly the "golden years" for mothers of young children, affording both Mother and Father the golden opportunity to guide little hearts and minds along the paths of good citizenship, integrity and moral stability.

For those Mothers with sons in service, the prayers of all of us are legion, and to those who have only the golden memories left—God's comfort to assuage the sharp and poginant sorrow that only a Mother can know.

To those whose homes are not blessed by children, and whose environment and maturity will allow, a searching thought might enter to make a real home for the many unwanted "adoptible" children of from four years and up, for whom there is no "Mother's Day" and who wistfully wonder why it is taking so long for a Mother to "find" them.

TELEVISION TALENT

Michael Cubic, Cub-Master of Pack 63, apeared on T.V. recently with his group on Monty Masters Rumpus Room Program, which telecasts from K. P. I. X. They put on a skit, which was also their individual action in last Fri. and Sat. night's Scout-O-Rama, held at the Cow Palace. Thrilled participants on the T. V. trek were Stephen Hansen, Steven Lyons, Raymond Brandon, Don Cubick, Maurice Bradshaw and Jack Klaasen.

TERRIES FOR THAILAND:

An interesting theme for the early week meeting of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Women's Association meet, was the bringing of new terry wash cloths to be sent in final collection to the church's Tailand (Siam) missionary hospital. The Women's Association who were responsible for the success of the Silver Tea held recently, regretfully are losing their President, Mrs. William Graf, who is moving away. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Robert Mattson.

FIRST-BORN:

A baby girl for the W. A. Struthers Jr. of 1812 Louvaine Drive, who made her debut at U. C. Hospital April 18th. Little Charlene is getting much attention from maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Dulebohn, who is visiting from Minneapolis for this happy occasion.

SOUTHERN SPHERE:

The South Pasadena home of the Warren Billings was the setting for a tea which was given recently to introduce the new Mrs. Robert Seiler, (Xandra Jorgenson). Mrs. Seiler is the daughterin--law of the Henry J. Seilers of 663 Evergreen Ave., whose son Bob is occupying a position as new Supt. of Recreation in South Pasadena Schools and Parks.

WINDFALL:

A very surprised and pleased young lady was Miss Mary Kelly, 167 Goethe Street, daughter of the Wiliam Kelly's, whose ticket was drawn at the Mother's Club Luncheon recently for a jackpot of thirty-five dollars. Mary, who works for an downtown insurance company, will no doubt use it to back up vacation plans which will be shared by sister Ruth who bought the lucky ticket for her.

RECOVERING:

George Iverson, 101 Hillside Blvd., is up and around again, following several week's convalescence and treatment for injuries sustained when he was hit by an automobile while crossing Market Street.

SETTING A DATE:

Helen Marie Gorsello and her fiance, Charle Henry, have chosen June 3 for their vow exchange, the locale being the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian Church, with Rev. John Glasse conducting the 3 p.m. ceremony. Marie resides with her sister, Mrs. Dan Anderson of Broadmoor, Charles, who was a former Cubmaster for Den 84, Broadmoor, and is the son of the Carl Robert Henry's, 1530 31st Ave., S. F.

CHIT CHAT

Noted at the Silver Tea held recently by the Women's Association of B. C. Presbyterian at the Hugh Falconer home—

Mrs. Walter Frogatt, down from Brentwood, getting first hand data on a Parian doll head, from doll authority and collector, Mrs. Eunice J. Eaton. . .

A striking collection of old silver and pewter kitchen accessories from Sweden, the exhibit of the Howard Nielsons, 722 Midway. . .

Very unusual items belonging to the hostess were a Chinese Fashion Book, vintage 1899, made with hand tinted wood blocks, an old fish shaped cod liver oil bottle, and Early Americana. IN OUR OWN BACK YARD:

Now under construction, a new twenty million dollar campus for S. F. State Teachers College, which includes a large gym and football stadium. The beautiful 75 by 42 foot swimming pool already completed in the gym, is designated for tryouts for next year's Olympic games, and tennis courts and baseball diamond are in various stages of development Joe Verducci, dynamic young coach, is already lining up an athletic intercollegiate program that will treat Daly City-zens to "Big Game" fare and educational facilities the best in the country—and right in our own back yard—The site: One hundred acres off 19th Ave. near Lake Merced.

BON VOYAGE:

Mrs. Joe Swan and Mrs. Margaret Archer were honor guests at the dinner given last week by members of the Ladies Aid at Grace Presbyterian Church. They are scheduled to leave for the British Isles, with their respective families shortly. Covers were laid for twenty guests, and the table centered with spring flowers. A novel interpretation of the trip was carried out with ship-shaped salads, denoting the ocean voyage, and ice-cream aeroplanes for dessert, for the cross country flight to the sailing port. Both ladies received gifts and corsages, and were wished a happy journey and a safe return.

LUNCHEON A LA FRANCAISE:

Among those present at the Mothers Club luncheon held recently who lent a fashionable touch ala beau monde were Mrs. Nathan Martinelli, Mrs. W. A. Brush and Mrs. A. Speaking on the qui vive, the entire affair was ne plus ultra, n'est-ce-pas?

STORK NEWS:

Third time parents are the Howard Byrne's of 355 Irvington St. who welcomed their second son last week at St. Mary's Help Hospital. Mrs. Byrne's mother, Mrs. S. Galindo, came all the way from Guatemala for the natal event, and is visiting at their home.

Mr. L. J. Williams of 819 Madlux St., Broadmoor (who is in the milk business), added a new name to his customer list when little Leslie Jr. arrived to join his family. Six year old sister Sandra is quite delighted with her new brother.

AGGRESSIVE DRIVERS

Aggressiveness among drivers, as with nations, is a dangerous trait. An attitude of courtesy and cooperation on the part of the driver is the safest one, suggests the California State Automobile Association.

Spring Festival

Participants Thanked By Recreation Department For Fete Participation

by Erle Johnson

This year's Spring Festival is over, but to many the fun and entertainment received from watching the parade and pageant will remain in their memories for a long time.

Everything went as planned, and the weather even helped make it gayer than ever. Although the crowd did not reach its expectation in number, those that did attend were pleased with the afternoon's festivities.

All of those who helped make this year's pageant a success are to be thanked for all of their hours of toil. As I mentioned in the previous article some folks would be overlooked, well they were, but I'll try not to overlook any this time.

Tops List

First on the list of many to be thanked this year will be Mrs. Muriele Pabst. Muriele's folk dancers did a splendid job of performing. The program of folk dancing is sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department and also includes adult classes. Congratulations Mrs. Pabst. Michael Wexler's String Ensemble performed well also and was very delightful on the program.

Leota's Studio, in Buri Buri, presented some excelent numbers. The youngsters from her studio are to be congratulated as well as their capable instructor. Carol Rae's girls were very colorful in their numbers. Little Gwedette Zanone was undoubtedly the cutest youngster, or maybe I should say dancer, to perform during the program. Linda Caravona, Judy Brandt and Marianne Zanone added much to carol Rae's numbers, nice going girls.

Bunnie Carrol had but two numbers this year, but they were both very good. Bunnie also did much to help with the Spring Queen and her Court. Thank you very much Bunnie, your help is always appreciated.

Much Credit

George Brenner, Conductor of the Daly City Band, is to be given much credit for the way his band performed under the circumstances. Mr. Brenner has lost a majority of his band to the arm forces and many of them are fighting in Korea. With the musicians under his supervision Mr. Brenner opened the Festival with the Star Spangled Banner.

Boy Scout Troop 249 acted as the color guard. While the band played a lively polka the Brownies, under the direction of Mrs. Golliday, Loeta's Studio of Dance, Buri Buri, and Bunnie Carrol's Studio of Dance, danced around the six May Poles. Mayor Green crowned Queen Maryann Laramie, who was as cute as a picture and every bit a queen. Mrs. Lois Adami did a wonderful job getting the queen and her court ready for the festival. Mrs. Adami was the chairman again this year for the queen and court and it was her task to ready these little girls. This meant a lot of hard work in getting all of their dresses ready etc. The Recreation Department thanks you for all of your efforts, you did your usual excellent job.

M. C. Job

Tommy Harris was the master of ceremonies and helped put the added life into the pageant, thank you Tommy for your swell job. The city presented the best booths in the concessions with a beautiful trophy and two ribbons. The James L. Snell PTA won first place and the trophy, General Pershing PTA was second, and the Jefferson High School PTA came third. All of the booths were decorated wonderfully and the organizations are to be commended for helping to add color as well as refreshments for the festival.

Mrs. Julia Bertetta and Mrs. Helda Dennis are to be thanked for their help in getting the various acts ready for the pageant Sunday. These two did a fine job, thank you ladies. The help of Glen Smith, former local recreation playground director, was terrific. One can always count on Glen for a swell job. Frank Bria helped with the decorating of the field and grandstand, nice going Frank.

Many Compliments

The people that received nothing but compliments for their efforts were those who helped decorate the stage. Mrs. Elsie Garrason and "Crew" did a magnificent job this year. I sincerely want to thank all of you kind people for your work, I'm sure that you know how pleased we were with the decorations. Yes, to the Daly City Garden Club the festival committe indeed send their best and many thanks.

As a reminder to those who enjoyed the festival this year, here is a list of those who helped make the whole thing possible, if you remember, thank them personally for a job well done. Pageant Committee: Chairman, Elman J. Rose, Program Chairman, Erle Johnson, Assistant, Gladys Kennedy; Publicity Chairman, Dan Andersen; Queen Chairman, Mrs. Lois Adami; Assistant, Mrs. M. Carruthers; Concessions Chairman, Mrs. Ann Eason; Stage Decorations, D. C. Garden Club, Chairman, Elsie M. Garrison; Public Address, Les Vogel Chevrolet; Ushering, Boy Scout Troop 249; Issuing Programs, Girl Scouts, Mrs. Heagney supervising.

Parade Group

Parade Committee: Chairman, Dan Andersen; Grand Marshal, Mike Desiano; Division Marshals, Eugene Lynch, Lino Donati, Dan Dolan, Eddie Allen, Frank Lombardi, "Curly" Arnaudo, Joe Dolan; Parade Judges, Barney Glick (Burlingame Advance), Jack Rosenbaum (S. F. News), Dean Jeanings, (Call-Bulletin); Awards, Frank Lombardi; Posters, A. "Curly" Arnaudo.

Sponsored by: Daly City Recreation Department, Assisted by: City Council, J. Paul Green, Mayor; Daly City Recreation Committee, James L. Snell, Chairman; Police Department, W. W. Sunderland, Chief; Fire Department, Elmer Kennedy, Chief; Street Department, Arthur Bodien, Superintendent; Parent Teachers Associations from Daly City and Colma; O.L.P.H. Mothers Club; Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, Daly City and Colma; Use of Field, Jefferson Union High School District School Board of Education.

The Daly City local paper is to be thanked for their donations of time and material, for they supplied the spectators with the printed programs. To all of those on THE RECORD staff, our sincere appreciation.

HERE'S FRICK AND FRACK, one of the many stars of the all new "Ice Follies of 1951," which opens at San Francisco's Winterland on Wednesday night, June 20. The 1951 run will be the shortest ever held in San Francisco.

Scout Troop 249 Takes First Place

Scout Troop 249 of Daly City came first in the Spring Festival Celebration, winning a gold cup. Their color guard, Preston Brown and Herman Peltz, raised the flag to the stirring music of the Star Spangled Banner played by the Daly City Band.

A booth also was run by Mrs. O. W. Wakefield, president of the Mothers Club of Troop 249, at the festival. All profits were put into the treasury for the boys' use. Mrs. C. Derham also helped in the booth.

President Mrs. Wakefield besides being very active in Scouts and PTA, has to donate 21 pints of blood.

The boys participated in the 1951 San Francisco Scout-O-Rama. This was their first occasion to wear their new nylon cold-fire pink neckerchiefs which were also bought with money raised by the mothers by a cake sale.

A great deal of credit of the efforts of these boys goes to Mr. Budge Plumber, Scoutmaster, and Mr. B. McKenna and Mrs. L. Neuner.

Van Der Werff States Platform

Andrew Van Der Werff, incumbent trustee and candidate for re-election in the Jefferson Elementary School District election May 18, stated today:

"On the eve of the election I welcome the opportunity to again re-iterate my platform and thank THE RECORD for its kindness in opening its columns not only to me, but to the opposing candidates for this office of trust.

"No candidate for school trustee should ever forget that he is elected to serve the public and he should endeavor to be responsive to their desires. He has an equal responsibility to furnish leadership in school affairs. Both these responsibilities I have accepted during my five years of tenure in office. My record proves conclusively that I have represented all the people all the time and have not, nor will I favor any small pressure groups who may seek to use school for their own selfish interests.

"My service has furnished me with a back ground of experience in all phases of the trustee's job. My attendance at meetings has always been faithful and my decisions based without fear or favor for the continuous improvement of our local schools.

"I have actively supported the building program and have assisted in the solution of problems brought about by our tremendous growth. If you believe as I do, that our schools have made enormous progress in the past several years, then your vote for me will be a vote to continue this progress.

Sportswomen's Huck Finn Pool Takes Fete Prize

by Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

The Daly Sportswomen are justly proud of their achievement in putting a float in the Spring Festival parade.

This Club is so small compared to most clubs and organizations, that to have had a float in the parade at all was quite a feat, but to have won a prize for that float is gratification enough for the hard working members who made it possible.

Although the club has not been officially notified, according to the announcement made, the Sportswomen took second prize for the most unusual float. We thank the judges.

Thank's Mates

And right now, as captain of our tiny ship, I want to say a great big "Thank you," to the small, but hard working crew, who brought her into port, under what seemed at time, impossible odds, over and impossible distance.

A very special "Thank you" goes to Mr. John A. Fairley, of Al Palen Motors, who not only gave us space for our float at inconveince to himself, but, "over and beyond the call of duty," as the army citation would say it, cleaned up the garage, and did some special welding that made our job infinitely easier and more satisfactory.

Also a special "Thank you," to Chet Flansburg of the Daly City Rod and Gun who drove our float, and returned it to the Shell Truck Rental Service at great inconvenience to himself and wife, Sportswoman Jo. Chet had planned to go to Palo Alto Sunday afternoon, but not knowing of these plans, we had not arranged to have anyone else return the truck. Learning this, Chet and Jo gave up their trip, and Chet returned the truck to the company.

Some More

Also a "Thanks," to Jim Fox, president of 7th District Council, for the loan of shrubs. These are his prizes and his pets and he put great faith in us by loaning them to the Sportswomen.

Thanks too, to the gentleman, whose name I do not know, who lent us the rubber life raft used as a fishing pool.

The glory is over and gone but the mess is still in my basement. Guess I'll go down and clean it up.

Sportswomen remember the joint meeting with the San Francisco and San Bruno Sportswomen this coming Monday night at 8:00 o'clock, at the Swedish-American Hall on Market Street. Let's all turn out in honor of this occasion.

Westlake Couple Leave For Railroad Convention

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Burk of 83 Westlake Drive, Westlake, leave May 12 to attend the American Railroad Convention at the Congress Hotel in Chicago.

Burk is a freight agent in San Francisco for the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Upon leaving Chicago they will visit friends and relatives in Pampa and Armarillo, Texas, and thence home.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

A little stir of excitement was caused by the chairman of the Improvement Club, at their regular monthly meeting last Friday night. Frank Semeit, this year's chairman, declared emphatically that there would be no more lengthy discussions on local politics, and that he wished to make it clear that the membership of the Improvement Club was open to all residents, rather than any political clique.

This action on the part of Semeit may possibly be the saving of the Club, which is badly needed in Bayshore, and which needs the support of more of the residents. Of late, the meetings have been almost entirely given over to involved discussions pertaining to our local boards. These discussions are understood by only a few people, and as a result, people lose interest in attending the meetings, because they do not understand why pipes should or should not be put here or put there.

Discussions of the sort that I have mentioned do have a definite place in our local affairs, and inteligent discussion is healthy. A report on these activities should be made at an Improvement Club, but all of our boards have a regular monthly meeting, right here in Bayshore, and those meetings are the ones that should argue the rights and wrongs of current policy. Anyone interested in the statistics and cost of management on our water board, fire board, and sanitary board, should take their interest to the right place and air it there.

Fading Away

If the Improvement Club should continue to operate the way it has been going, it will gradually die a natural death. We need the club for representation in Bayshore. Many worthwhile things have been done in the past by the Club, that has been to the definite advantage of all of us. Letters written to the County, and to private enterprise, has gone a long way toward bettering conditions from time to time. If the Club does disintergrate, we must fall back on writing our own personal complaints in regard to nuisances in the neighborhood, and our letters in most cases are handled as individual gripes, rather than a community complaint. For that reason, our hats are off to Frank Semeit. Hope it does some good.

We have another election coming up. We go to the polls May 18, to elect members for our school boards, and to vote on a school bond issue.

Only one person has filed to sit on the school board of the Bayshore Elementary School. Garnet Robertson, the incumbent, has filed to run again, but there is no contest.

Vote - Vote

We must vote on members of the school board of the Jefferson High School, and also on the bond issue, which is of vital importance to all of us, whether we have children or not.

The bond isue asks for $1,300,000 for the purchase of two sites for new schools, one north of Sharp Park, and the other east of Skyline Blvd., near Pedro Road, and for the erection of school buildings. Part of the money will be used for a building for Jefferson High School to be used primarily as a cafeteria.

We all pay for these things if they are voted in, so we should all go to the polls and vote on them.

The Improvement Club is giving a dance this Saturday night. Seventy-five per cent of the proceeds will be given to the Boy Scouts, and will be used by our own Scouts for vacation funds, and for equipment as they need it. The Scouts are going door to door with the tickets, so look for them.

Meeting Called

There will be a meeting of the Bayshore PTA Friday afternoon, May 11. The school band will entertain those who attend, and refreshments will be served.

The topic this Sunday morning at the Bayshore Baptist Church will be "A Great Promise." The topic Sunday evening will be "The Word of God."

Another used car lot is going to open soon at the corner of Rio Verde and Geneva Ave. There was a car lot there some months ago, but it folded up and faded away. Perhaps this one will be more fortunate.

The Cub Scouts have set a definite date for their minstrel show. It will be given on the evening of May 25, at 8 p.m. The admission will be 25 cents for children and adults alike.

This promises to be a swell show, and I hope that all of you take it in. A great deal of work has been put into the making of these minstrel costumes, and the clothes alone on these little fellows is something to see, apart from the fact that the show has been carefully put together and painstakingly rehearsed. It will be held in the Auditorium of the Bayshore Elementary School.

DEAR PARENTS

By Jane Keith

A friend recently asked if I ever gave my house a real "spring cleaning." By that, she meant the kind which works like a dose of salts and makes your hair and curtains white in one week's time.

"No, I can't say that I do," was my reply. "I feel giulty about not being a better housekeeper, but never quite guilty enough. . . ."

'Congenially" lazy is the definition given me by myself for my way of housekeeping—my mother says I should spell it "congenitally," but is just her opinion, brought on no doubt, from bringing me up. She has always had an eye for knick-knacks and dust while I have always been near sighted and almost completely uninterestd in both.

I am weary of fingermarks following my polishing rag. These fingermarks ALWAYS come out on top—and no manufacturer of wax or polish can tell me any different! The fact that their salesmen keep trying and I keep buying just makes my work harder—when it comes time to junk out the closets and cupboards.

Forward, March

I am a firm believer in the old saying that goes "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach," but marriage has taught me that to stay in his heart after he has eaten—it is a good idea to have his shirts in shape, too! Fortunately, I enjoy cooking, washing and ironing. . . which makes for a happy family attitude toward non-vacuumed rugs and undusted furniture.

Home made bread and chocolate cake provide wonderful "rose colored" glasses for the family of a lady who likes to be lazy—especially 'reading" lazy. With such items in the cupboard,s the continual reading of books by "mother" is considered merely "quaint" instead of "detrimental to the home!"

By now you have guessed that I am a lazy one, a reading one—a non-duster and "spring cleaner, but to me, my home is a friend. As such it is of course, entitled to be treated with fairness and consideration — all in moderation. But when I can no longer enjoy it and relax with it I shall know something is radically wrong — with me. Probably the root of the problem will be "spring cleaning!

Announce Sunday Church Program

The first Sunday services in Abbey Chapel, Hillside Blvd. & F Sts., Colma, found the auditorium of this meeting place of the Westlake Community Baptist Church almost filled to capacity.

The Directors of Mt. Olivet Memorial Park have graciously loaned this beautiful newly decorated chapel to the church until at such time its own church edifice is erected. The chapel is also equipped with artistic carved oak pews, and a Hammand Electric Organ. The aditional beautiful stained glas windows also help to make this one of the finest places of worship obtainable. The entire church membership is most appreciative of this lovely gesture of community cooperation on the part of the directors of Mt. Olivet Memorial Park, and it is hoped that someday the church will be able to reciprocate this gracious gesture.

Next Sunday morning at the 11:00 worship hour, Rev. Roy L. Milam, founder and pastor of the church, will present three beautiful corsages to the oldest mother present; the youngest mother present; and the mother having the largest number of her family present.

Another excellent musical program is being planned for this special Mother's Day program, and aditional preparations are now being made to handle a record attendance.

The use of the chapel now permits the church to start its Sunday School program, with classes for all ages. Classes are from 10:00 to 10:45 a.m.

Two Jeff Students Win Achievement Award Contest

Two Jefferson High School students this week were named as winners in the zone selection event of the $32,000 statewide Bank of America achievement awards program.

They are: Patricia Austring, fine arts; and Kathleen Johnston, vocational arts.

The winners were chosen from a group of outstanding students, each of whom had won a Bank of America Achievement Cup and Certificate in his own high school on the basis of scholarship, character, citizenship and leadership. Judgings were made by a zone selection board consisting of five prominent citizens from this area.

Each of these zone winners is assured of a cash prize in the final announcement of awards: The amount received will be determined by the individual student's rating in the final selection event for his section of the state. In northern California two final judgings will be held—one for the San Francisco Bay Region counties in San Francisco May 23, and the other for the remaining 39 counties north of an including Kern on May 18 in Sacramento.

The bank has announced the following prizes this year in the statewide program: eight $1000 first place awards; eight $500 second place awards; eight $250 third place awards; eight $100 fourth place awards, and 28 additional awards of $50.

Aprproximately 100 per cent of the 300 secondary schools in northern California have participated in the program, purpose of which is to give recognition and reward to achievement in school and promise of future success and service to society.

CALIFORNIA LAST WEEK

The Governor is surrounded by bills and is signing new laws and amendments at the rate of 25 or 30 a day. Most important signed recently were measures designed to take the profits out of crime by disallowing exemptions on state income tax for operating businesses engaged in criminal activities, or which are "fronts" for criminal activities. The Governor also wrote into law an exemption from taxes of parochial schools. In a radio address, he expressed concern over the fate of his crime commission funds.

The Legislature: With only seven more weeks to go, has taken action on little major legislation, with only big issue out of the way the reapportionment of the state. Assemblyman Francis Lindsay of Placer County got his bill for a new Water District in Placer and El Dorado counties out of committee after charges were made by Assemblyman Harlan Hagen that Lindsay received "$7,200 for introducing the bill." After the committee hearing, Lindsay said "Hagen exaggerated, I only got $5,200." The money came from a board of supervisors.

The Senate: Charges and counter charges flew over a statement in "Alert" an anti-communist publication in Los Angeles, the result of which was a vote of confidence.

The Assembly passed a bill closing Orange County coastal waters to purse seine and ring nets from May 1 to September 10, a blow to commercial fishermen; congratulated liquor administrator George M. Stout on his retirement June 1 after 29 years' service; passed a series of municipal court bills reorganizing the court setup in cities and counties; passed two bills affecting horse racing, making illegal poling of horses, and banning touts and bookmakers from race tracks.

Pay Boost Seen For Supervisors

A move to cut San Mateo county relief costs and raise the salaries of county supervisors was made at the regular meeting of the grand jury this week.

Thomas B. Foster, jury spokesman, noted that social welfare costs have "shot up," and now approximate $5,000,000. The jury is now investigating the situation.

It was also suggested that the supervisors' pay should be hiked from $300 to $400 a month. The supervisors, Foster said, have not had a raise since 1946-47. A resolution to boost the supervisors' salaries will be sent to the state legislature for approval.

Sermonette of the Week

"SALVATION BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH"

By

Vyron A. Fender

Pastor

Ocean View Church of Christ

Text: Eph. 2:3-10. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, wheih God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

Grace is God's part in the scheme of redemption and God has already fulfilled His part. This was consummated when Jesus shed His blood on the cross. It was the loving favor of God towards lost humanity when He sent His son into the world to suffer and die. The shed blood of Christ now acts as a covering for the sins of all who will obey God. "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." John 1:17.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened." Matt. 7:7-8.

A genuine faith leads to obedience in all things as commanded by Christ. "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." Hebrews 11:6. So we see that one must believe in God and believe in a future reward. The truth og God's word must be sought after and followed.

A seeking faith leads to repentance from sin because this is demanded of God. "I tell you Nay; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 13:5.

A seeking faith leads to confession of faith. "And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Phil. 2:8.

A seeking faith leads to baptism. "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." John 3:5. "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Acts 2:38.

A seeking faith leads to good works and faithfulness. "But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law." Gal. 5-22-23. "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." Phil. 4:8.

To seek and follow after these things will assure salvation. "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life." Rev. 2-10b.

The Ocean View Church of Christ was incorporated under the laws of California in March, 1949. Prior to that time, it had met as an unincorporated group.

The church is presently meeting in the American Legion Hall, 474 San Diego street, Daly City, until its building is completed.

The church is organized as independent and undenominational. It cooperates and fellowships with many of the Churches of Christ and Christian churches in California. The board of directors are all members of the local congregation.

The church believes the Bible to be the inspired word of God, and that its authority must be believed and obeyed if salvation is to be realized.

The above picture is the architect's drawing of the first unit of the building program.

This community religious appeal is being made jointly by our churches and the following public-spirited business and professional men and women

A Letter Written To You By A Poppy

As the hands of disabled war veterans in hopsitals throughout the country were busy making memorial poppies by the millions for Poppy Day of 1951, the following letter has come from a typical little poppy, telling of its experiences in Daly City, California:

"In introduction, I am the American Legion Auxiliary Poppy. My folks hail from Flanders Field, but I was born at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Palo Alto, California. Just recently I was introduced to a group of young women of the Daly City Post Unit No. 410 in Daly City, California. They know of the honor bestowed upon my ancestors in France. You know the French poppy is considered the memorial flower of the entire English-speaking world.

"Well, these women received me royally and made plans for my grand coming-out party. My history and all the fine things for which I stand were printed in the daily papers for all to read. I was introduced to His Honor, Mayor Paul Green of the City of Daly City, who graciously proclaimed a day as 'My Day' in his city.

"On that fine day I was introduced to all manner of wonderful folk throughout the city. I visited the famous schools and great factories, the shops and stores all about town, and I toured the streets of this historic city. I was guided all day by these wonderful Auxiliary women and a few enthusiastic Legionnaires. By nightfall I was jauntily astride the lapels of more than 4,500 kind of people in and around Daly City.

"I worked very hard that day in Daly City, but I loved it, for I know everything realized by that hard work will soon find expression in the Rehabilitation and Child Welfare work so sorely needed in our country today.

"Very gratefully yours,
"THE AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY POPPY"

CALIF. 40th DIVISION IN GOOD CONDITION

MAY 10. (CNS)—Governor Earl Warren this week announced that he has received a letter from Frank Pace, Jr., Secretary of the Army, which states men of the 40th Division, (California National Guard) are "in excellent condition and well quartered."

The Division debarked in the Yokahama, Japan, area April 13. Pace said the division would be "given the finest possible care within our means."

Time and one-half for overtime after 40 hours a week is required by the Federal wage and hour law for all covered workers.

Blood Bank Drive Enters Fourth Week

The drive for $100,000 for the purpose of building a new San Mateo County Blood Bank, replacing the present over-crowded building, is now in its fourth week.

Chairman E. R. McDonald expressed the hope that the fund drive would go over the top within the next few weeks.

"Scores of organizations are working for the success of the campaign to build a permanent Blood Bank for the county," said McDonald.

"If every association in the county; every manufacturing plant and business house would follow the example recently set by the Burlingame-San Mateo Motor Car Dealers' Association, the financial goal would quickly be reached."

McDonald explained that the Motor Car Dealers' Assn. has pledged the sum of $3.00 for each employee in the organization. Additionally, he said, the association will ask individual employees of the motor car firms to contribute.

Dan E. Anderson is chairman of the Daly City group seeking funds for the new Blood Bank.

Sheridan School PTA Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Sheridan PTA will be held on Tuesday, May 15, at 1 p.m. in the school, room 17.

May's theme is "Home and School Cooperation in their Children's Traffic Safety." Speaker will be Officer Clifford Walker of the S. F. Police Dept.

Last year's history is to be read by Mrs. Louis Palmini, past historian of Sheridan PTA.

Mrs. Harry H. Hastie, junior past president of the unit, will report on the C.C.P.T. Convention held recently in San Diego.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, refreshments are to be served by the new hospitality chairman, Mrs. Paul H. Rau, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Floyd Ellison.

USE SAME BODY OIL

Don't use a heavier oil on the touring trip, advises the National Automobile Club. It does not mean reduced oil consumption, but rather, under ordinary conditions, increased oil consumption. Moreover, a heavy oil tends to cut down the gasoline mileage yield.

Unemployment Insurance Claims Decreasing More

MAY 11. (CNS) — More decreases in unemployment insurance claims and payments were announced this week by the State Department of Employment.

For the week ending April 19, the department said 121,532 claims were filed, and 93,929 paid, as compared to 125,982 and 98,578 paid the previous week.

In the So. San Francisco office of the department, 294 claims were filed and 249 paid, according to the report.

YOU WOULDN'T LET YOUR CHILD BE TRAPPED

OR WOULD YOU?

Take the brightest kid in town (he could be yours) . . . give him a second rate schooling or not enough of it . . . jam him into a crowded classroom, hand him an out-of-date textbook . . . and the job's well begun. He may be damaged for life.

Oh, he may make out all right . . . even be a fair-to-middling citizen. But compared to what he might have been—he'll still be something to make you weep.

By 1955-56, seven million extra kids will have swarmed into our schools . . . and plenty of them—more than you think, probably—may be right here in our own community. They're going to need new classrooms, more teachers, more textbooks and supplies. And we got to see that they get them.

Because if we don't—we'll be selling ourselves and our country down the river. We'll be unforgivably wasting the most valuable natural resource we have—our own children—America's citizens of tomorrow.

Can't we start thinking about this problem now? You'll help, won't you? For information on how citizens in other communities have worked together in behalf of their schools, write to: National Citizenship Commission for Public Schools, 2 West 45th Street, New York, 19, N.Y.

Don't Gamble Life With Car's Mechanical Fitness

Don't gamble your life against your car's mechanical condition, the California Highway Patrol urged motorists today.

Pointing out that a motor vehicle is no safer than its mechanical condition or the attitude of the person driving it, the Patrol urged a complete spring safety checkup now.

"Pay particular attention to the steering mechanism, lights, brakes and windshield wipers," the Patrol advised. "Unless you are a skilled mechanic, don't rely on yourself to check your car. Take it to a competent mechanic and be sure."

If your neighbor were seriously injured tomorrow could you administer first aid? You should be able to for Civil Defense needs you. Enroll with the nearest Red Cross chapter NOW.

BERNARDINE FLYNN, the beloved Sade in the famous daytime program, "Vic and Sade," has a similar role, sympathetic and appealing, as Lona Drewer in the new television novel, "Hawkins Falls, Pop. 6200" (NBC-TV, 5:00 PM, EST, Monday through Friday). As Lona, Bernardine is the adored of the people of Hawkins Falls. Quiet, unassuming, always interested in her neighbor's welfare, Lona is the backbone of the community. And Bernardine Flynn's neighbors in real life say she's just that way. Bernardine is the wife of a leading Chicago obstetrician, and mother of five fine sons.

IN APRIL, "Cavalcade of America" which brings historical drama to the radio audience, presents talented film star June Havoc with Jeffrey Lynn in "The Reluctant Pioneer." Imagine a world without typewriters, telephones, cars, TV sets, radios, electricity ad infinitum . . . yet that was the picture about a century ago which man's imagination has changed to our modern day. "The Reluctant Pioneer" is the story of the fabulous invention of the typewriter which has completely revolutionized the writing habits of the world . . . and how it was almost left dormant by a dreamy, impractical inventor. Du Pont's "Cavalcade" is heard every Tuesday evening on NBC.

THE UNCANNY resemblance between Rudolph Valentino and Anthony Dexter in Columbia Pictures' "Valentino," will cause many a double-take among screen fans. When producer Edward Small found this young unknown, after an exhaustive search (75,000 competitors), the huge plans had only begun. Dramatic lessons and dancing instruction followed before the cameras could roll. In color by Technicolor, "Valentino" offers in celluloid reincarnation, the loves and times of the screen's greatest lover.

One of the first sections of California to be populated by American farmers is said to be the Napa Valley.

Lions Lauded For Youth Work

Appreciation of the fine service rendered the youth of Daly City by the Lions Club was sounded this week by the Daly City Recretion Committee.

The Lions were especially lauded for their participation in the traffic safety patrol program, and in youth welfare in general.

Following is a letter sent to Lions' President Gil O'Shaughnessy by the Committee:

Dear President O'Shaughnessy:

This letter is sent at the request of the Daly City Recreation Committee as an aftermath of their recent meeting at which the following motion was passed. That the Daly City-Colma Lions Club "be complimented on their interest in youth welfare in this area and particularly for the Traffic Safety Patrol Seals Stadium Baseball Annual Affair."

Will you kindly express the appreciation of the committee to your members.

Sincerely yours,
James Hinds, Secretary
Daly City Recreation Committee

Expect Meat, Food Shortage Next Fall

MAY 10. CNS)—Better quality meats and other food items will be in short supply next fall and winter, according to agricultural experts, and they base this prediction on the fact people will have more money to spend on food luxuries.

Hard goods, such as electric appliances, radios, television sets, and automobiles, are due to become scarcer items and potential customers with fewer appliances to buy, will spend it on the table.

Californians, in common with residents of other states, have been purchasing hard goods at a terrific rate, often going in debt, and economizing on market items. As a result demands for food, that is the more expensive commodities, have been slightly below normal.

This condition, state the experts, will be reversed and the public may look for shortages in some foods unless the federal government steps in to check buying.

The experts beliece present price controls will be tightened and it may be necessary to resort to rationing on the same basis as in World War II.

There is plenty of food for normal demands but not to sustain a protracted buying spree by those who will turn to expensive steaks when other markets do not permit them to spend money.

TWO EARS MAY MISS IT

Just as two heads are reputedly better than one in many quests for knowledge, so are four or even more ears better than two when in search of car noises, points out the National Automobile Club. Noises in the car have a way of being transmitted quite a distance from their source. The man engaged in rocking the car or otherwise creating the conditions that produce the sound may find himself too far away to locate it precisely. It is one job on which it pays to have a helper.

Giant sequoia grow in scattered groves along a narrow belt at an altitude of four to eight thousand feet for a distance of about 250 miles on the western slope of the Sierra Nevada.

Job Information Now At Geary St.

For the public's convenience, the Army & Air Force Agencies in the San Francisco Bay Area have centralized all local civilian job information at a new office located at 1000 Geary Street, San Francisco, California.

Fifteen Army & Air Force Agencies are cooperating in furnishing this office with current employment information. These agencies, all located in the Bay Area, are as follows: Army Audit Agency, Army Finance Office, Benicia Arsenal, Camp Stoneman, Hamilton Air Force Base, Office of the Secretary of the Army, Presidio of San Francisco, Quartermaster Market Center, Quartermaster Procurement Agency, San Francisco District Engineers, San Francisco Medical Depot, San Francisco Ordnance District, San Francisco Port of Embarkation, South Pacific Division Engineers, Travis Air Force Base.

RIB ROAST

THE gentleman in the picture at the left has a good point. There's no need now for any homemaker to serve a rib roast that has excess bone and fat and tough meat on it. Safeway's method of trimming removes these waste parts—you get a roast that's easy to cook, easy to carve, and just wonderful to eat. Consider the value, too. You get more for your money in meat that is properly trimmed before weighing (as all Safeway meats are). See diagram at left.

Make Clothes Last Longer!

As our preparedness program swings into high gear, cutting into peacetime production, it becomes more and more important for us to conserve the things we now have. This is in line with President Truman's economic message to Congress that Americans will have to "make their household goods last longer, their linens and their clothes." With the aid of a no-rinse detergent in tub or washing machine—eliminating much abrasive handling and wringing—we can give our clothes that new lease on life. No wonder the housewife is so pleased to see her linens looking lovelier than ever, after repeated washings in the no-rinse detergent, which saves wear and tear on fabrics, and conserves hot water and fuel, as well. This modern No-Rinse Surf method is no overnight development. It is the result of over five years' laboratory research by one of the country's leading manufacturers of soaps and detergents. The soil is extracted from the clothes, held in suspension in the wash water and, since the no-rinse detergent does not permit soil to be re-deposited on the fabric, no rinsing is required. All the dirt flows out with the water in wringing, leaving the garments soft and sweet-smelling, with not a bit of scum on clothes or tub.

LAKE PLEASANT DAM

Lake Pleasant Dam, which is located on the Agua Fria River just thirty-five miles northwest of Phoenix in Arizona, is reported by the National Automobile Club to be 2,200 feet long and 261 feet high. The water that it impounds is used to irrigate the land south of the dam and east of the White Tank Mountains.

Bill To Outlaw Draw Poker Passed

MAY 10. (CNS)—The Assembly last week voted, 61 to 9, to outlaw draw poker, beating down proposed amendments to the bill which would have barred wagering on horse races and the playing of bridge and canasta.

Assemblyman Richard Dolwig, San Mateo, voted aye.

The anti-poker bill, introduced by Assemblyman Herbert R. Klocksiem, Los Angeles, was withdrawn from committee after being pigeonholed.

The initial amendment was introduced by Assemblyman Clayton A. Dills, Los Angeles, and would have barred the playing of draw poker except in regularly licensed places.

The amendment was characterized by Assemblyman Harold K. Levering, Los Angeles, as subterfuge while Assemblyman Julian Beck, also of Los Angeles, said there was nothing in the law which made draw poker legal and the game was only being played on a ruling by the late Attorney General U. S. Webb who said the game was a game of skill and therefore legal.

To adopt the amendment, Beck, said, would be to legalize the game.

A second amendment by Assemblyman Thomas J. Doyle, Los Angeles, would have made wagering on horse racing illegal. Doyle contended this was a good method to end bookmaking. The amendment was soundly beaten.

Dills, in a last ditch stand to block the Klocksiem measure, introduced an amendment including bridge and canasta with draw poker but this was also defeated.

The famous St. Gothard Tunnel, world's longest, bores nine miles through the Alps; built at a cost of $57 million, it required eight years to build.

FAIR PLAY ON THE HIGHWAY

Treat other drivers and pedestrians as you would have them treat you, declares the National Automobile Club. Frightening pedestrians with quick stops or angry blasts of the horn may cause confusion that may result in a mishap. Courtesy and fair play on the part of motorists can prevent many accidents.

County Prepares For Oil Boom

Preparing for a possible oil boom in the county, the board of supervisors, at the request of the planning commission, has adopted an ordinance to regulate drilling of oil or gas wells.

Under the new ordinance, which will become law on May 30, a fee of $100 will be required for a permit to drill wells. There also will be an annual $100 inspection fee for each producing well.

In addition, the ordinance limits operators to one well on each five acres of forest or agricultural land, and to one well on each acre of industrially-zoned land. If oil is discovered in the county, the area will probably be zoned industial to permit more wells.

The drafting of the ordinance follows a renewed interest of maior companise in the LaHonda and Coastside areas. Several exporatory wells have been drilled near LaHonda, without yielding any commercial deposits.

Troop 19 Holds Court Of Awards

by A Girl Scout

Girl Scout Troop 19 held their first Court of Awards at the Colma Community Center Friday, May 4. Families and friends of the troop were treated to a delicious pot-luck dinner, followed by the presentation of the badges by Mrs. Ruth Bruce, troop leader, and her assistants, Mrs. Mildred Hansen and Mrs. Belva Temkin.

A total of 107 badges in the fields of hostess, housekeeper, troop dramatics, cook, folk dancer, ministrel, games, outdoor cook, rabbit raiser child care, clerk, backyard campers, sewing, musician, leather, dramatic appreciation, swimmer, home gardener, and drawing and painting were awarded to the following girls:

Carol Bruce, Cherryl Taylor, Laverne Nanini, Bonnie Randall, Carol Hansen, Marie Perdue, Beverly High, Jill Dougherty, Jane Niblock, Edith Detweiler, Robin Hatfield, Nancy Golladay, Nancy Golobic, Florence Benedetti, Geraldine Bertetta, Linda Bloom, Carol Bloom, Elaine Gaggero, Nancy Hoper, Charlene Van Vliet, and Betty Banfield.

After the awards were made, the three patrols of Troop 19 entertained with the following program: Space Patrol presented two shadow-graph playlets. The Sunshine Patrol sang "Fiesta" and "Cielito Lindo." The Blackbird Patrol enacted the story of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." The Sunshine Patrol sent the audience home laughing with a three act hrse opera called "The Adventures of the Crisco Kid (with his horse, Spry)."

New Grace Church Honors Mothers At Ham Dinner

The New Grace Presbyterian Church will hold a home-cooked ham dinner in honor of mothers tomorrow night (May 11) from 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Crocker and Winchester Streets.

Please bring father!

In the morning members of the church will hold a bazaar there.

PRACTICAL AIR GAUGE

The ear, if it is alert, is a good air gauge, advises the National Automobile Club. When it detects a squeal from the tires when taking a corner at average speeds, the driver should regard it as his cue to have the tires inflated. Underinflation, as a matter of fact, has reached the danger point when the tires begin to utter these cries of pain.

State Passes Two Horse Racing Bills

MAY 10. (CNS) — Two bills affecting horse racing in California were passed this week by the Assembly.

The first, by Assemblyman John E. Moss, Sacramento, would make it a misdemeanor to pole a horse, while the second, by Charles W. Lyon, Los Angeles county, would give the California Racing Commission the power to eject any tout or bookmaker from a racetrack.

Lyon said his bill was necessary to put teeth in the present law by making it possibe for the commission to act.

J.C. Canning Center Starts New Season

The canning center at San Mateo Junior College is starting off the new season by canning asparagus for peninsula housewives who make use of its canning facilities. Later the cannery will can cherries and other fruits, as well as vegetables in season, and some meats.

Housewives bring their produce to the cannery, after arranging for an appointment, and can the produce under skilled supervision. The cannery staff provides the equipment and does the cooking. Full information regarding the cannery can be obtained at the Baldwin office. In past years the cannery has been popular as a means of preserving foods and an aid in offsetting the high cost of living.

Other SMJC News

Three junior college instructors represented San Mateo County at the special government school in Pleasanton during the past two weeks where they received instruction in civilian defense work regarding atomic bomb attacks. They will now be in a position to train groups of local people in this defense work.

The college welcomed large groups of parents and other guests to its public schols week program which was held on two campuses. Many departments were in full operation that evening, giving the guests a chance to see the college departments, buildings and equipment and to meet the faculty.

Students have planned a dance for this Saturday evening on the Coyte Point campus. An Hawaiian theme will be used.

Attendance at the De Young Memorial Museum in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park is said to exceed annually that of the Metropolitan Museum in New York.

Old Army Barracks Destroyed By Fire

Fire completely destroyed an abandoned army barracks building on Black Mountain near here last Thursday.

Although the fire took place outside the city limits, the Daly City Fire Department responded and kept the blaze from spreading to other structures there.

It is believed that boys started the blaze, according to Chief Elmer Kennedy. This marks the third barracks building destroyed by fire there.

Last week the Army Engineers Corps advertised for bids for sale and removal of the camp buildings.

323 Measles Cases Reported In County

MAY 10. (CNS)—New cases of measle continued to increase in California during the week ending April 21, and there were 3,982 reported to the State Department of Health, 323 in San Mateo County.

Infantile paralysis cases also showed a gain for the same week, there beingg 14 reported, seven in the Los Angeles area and two each in Stanislaus and Kern counties and one each in Alemeda, Solano, and Tulare.

All other child communicable diseases dropped off during the week, the department reporting but 1,447 cases of chickenpox, 440 of mumps, 220 streptococcal infections, 204 of German measles, and 36 influenza.

One case of typhoid fever was reported in Kern county and three were four cases of diphtheria, one in Alameda and three in Stanislaus county.

Five cases of Brucellosis, an animal disease to which humans are susceptible were reported, one each in Humboldt and Madera counties, two in Los Angeles city, and one not allocated.

Jewish Welfare Drive Steps Up

Still far short of their $2,000,000 goal, leaders in the campaign of the Jewish Welfare Fund called on all workers this week to intensify their efforts to bring the drive to a speedy and successful conclusion.

"Every cent of our goal must be raised," said Benjamin H. Swig and Marcel Hirsch, campaign Co-chairman. "Human misery and human lives are involved. The needs are too great to permit of delay or procastination. Generous giving by each and every member of the local Jewish community will make it possible for us to attain our objective in quick order."

Women leaders are busy arranging a $36.50 luncheon—the amount representing a contribution of ten cents per day for 365 days. The affair will be held Tuesday, May 15th, in the Italian Room of the Hotel St. Francis.

Henry Fonda, stage star, will make a personal appearance and there will be an address by Knox Manning, well known radio commentator.

All women of the local Jewish community are invited.

Arrangements are in the hands of a committee headed by Mrs. Reuben R. Rinder and Miss Katherine Simon, co-chairmen of the Women's Division.

Juan Bautista Roger Cooper, a Yankee trader, was the first settler in the Big Sur Valley, in Monterey County, claiming land in 1852.

Employers and labor organizations can verify validity of military leave policies with the Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights.

D.C. Youth Held On Burglary Charge

Police picked up a 14-year-old Daly City boy last Thursday for alleged participation in the burglary of the high school shop building in Richmond Easter Day.

The boy was implicated in a confession of a Richmond boy. He then admitted his guilt. An electric drill valued at $120 and $20 in small change from a coke machine were taken.

San Francisco is headquarters for the Twelfth Federal Reserve District.

Salinas is the home of the California Rodeo, held annually in June.

California's pheasant habitats, mostly in the Central Valley, equal the best in the United States.
